Welcome to the 2023 Genius Network® Annual Event!

Joe Polish is the Founder of Genius Network®, one of the highest level groups in the world for Entrepreneurs. He also curates the Annual Genius Network Event and the 100k Group ($100,000). Genius Network and 100K is home to some of the most successful Entrepreneurs alive.

Joe has also helped build thousands of businesses and generated hundreds of millions of dollars for his clients. He has been featured in INC, Fortune, Forbes, Success, U.S News & World Report, among others, and has spoken at Stanford University. Joe also hosts three of the top ranked marketing and business podcasts, including iLoveMarketing.com, 10xTalk.com and GeniusNetwork.com. Recent projects include: Cleator, a 40-acre ghost town he purchased with partners (www.WhatsYourCleator.com).

His documentary “CONNECTED: The Joe Polish Story,” premiered at the historic TCL Chinese Theater (formerly Mann’s Chinese Theater), and his documentary “Black Star” won the Audience Choice Award at the Sedona Film Festival.

Joe’s mission with Entrepreneurs and Genius Network® is “to build a better Entrepreneur,” and his mission with Genius Recovery is “to change the global conversation of how people view and treat addicts with compassion, instead of judgment and to find the best forms of treatment that has efficacy and share those with the world.

Read “Life Gives To The Giver” at www.JoesFreeBook.com. His book, What’s In It For Them, published by Hay House, released Nov 1, 2022.

“You don’t need more ideas from thought leaders. You need Results from Results Leaders. That is what we focus on at the Genius Network Event.” - Joe Polish

WHAT'S IN IT For Them?

The world continues to adopt a more virtual lifestyle, creating silos in your personal and professional relationships. But no matter where you choose to communicate, there are specific strategies you can use to have the "in-person" effect. In Joe Polish's latest book, What's In It For Them?, he shares the principles for connecting in an increasingly disconnected world. During the event, you'll be the first to hear the key learnings from Joe's decades of experience as one of "The Most Connected Entrepreneurs on the Planet." Getting what you want is just a matter of helping others get what they want.

GET THE BEST OUT OF BUSINESS

Daymond John has been a phenomenally successful business person for over 25 years.

Along his entrepreneurial journey, through his many successes as well as failures, he has learned a few things about getting the best out of business and life. The keys to success include learning how to establish the right mindset and following a few fundamental principles Daymond calls his "S.H.A.R.K Points".

Get ready! Daymond John is going to share his unique goal-setting and achievement strategies, which will empower audience members to make positive changes in every aspect of their lives.

CREATE A LIFE YOU LOVE

Mary Morrissey has made it her mission to empower people to create and live a life they love. For over 50 years Mary has studied the art and science of transforming dreams into results. Mary is the founder of the Brave Thinking Institute, the world's premier provider of transformational training and coaching.

INNOVATION & TRIUMPH

Since 1994, Rick has been a dynamic force in the business world as the Founder and President of Mutual Capital Alliance, Inc. (MCA), a diversified financial holding company. With over 30 years of investments in sectors like healthcare, technology, and more, Rick's life took an unexpected turn when he faced his most personal challenge: CANCER... Combining his industrial engineering background with his relentless spirit, Rick approached his cancer battle with the same innovative mindset that he applied in his professional ventures. His journey through diagnosis, treatment, and recovery not only tested his resilience but also deepened his insights into healthcare, personal well-being, and the power of a positive mindset in overcoming life's toughest challenges. Rick will share his inspiring story of hope, innovation, and perseverance.

OVERCOME FEAR BUILD TEAMS TRAIN FOR AGILITY

MARTHA MCSALLY

Martha McSally served 26 years in the Air Force and was the 1st woman in U.S. history to fly a fighter jet in combat and command a fighter squadron in combat. She deployed six times to the Middle East and Afghanistan, flying 325 combat hours in the A-10 attack plane, earning the Bronze Star and six air medals.

Martha has never been willing to walk by a problem, which led her to serving 6 years as a government official. Martha 3.0 is taking the unique lessons learned through a lifetime of experience to equip people and businesses to overcome fear, build trusted teams, and train for an agility mindset.

We deliver life-changing experiences.

You'd spent months planning a once-in-a-lifetime trip to Moab. You wake up at your campsite and open the van doors to look out at the canyon below. The cool breeze rushes in – but you and your dog slept warm and cozy all night since the Storyteller Overland van's heat and air conditioning system lasts up to 12 hours on a single charge.

Your stomach grumbles, so you stretch your arms, yawn and roll off of your queen-sized Murphy bed. You plug in your induction cooktop and heat up the kettle for coffee and instant oatmeal. Then you sit on your GrooveLounge convertible sleeper sofa to enjoy breakfast with a view.

Now it's time to start the day's adventure. You drive away from the campsite, and although it requires some rock hopping, you smile knowing there's no trail your Storyteller Overland van can't handle. You drive about 10 minutes west of Moab to Wall Street, which is a sandstone rock wall known for its incredible rock climbing routes that can be accessed right off the road. Your friend climbs up to the top of the van's roof and belays you from there as you climb.

You stop mid-climb and look around at the stunning red rock landscape below you. You feel incredible gratitude – not only did you get to climb Wall Street and Fisher Towers (a dream!) but you've also been able to stay out longer and go farther than ever before.

You look down and think, "This van changed my life."

ASK, NOT WHY THE ADDICTION, BUT WHY THE PAIN?

It's Time to Change the Global Conversation
Around Addiction and Recovery.

Did you know almost all addiction stems from trauma?

Addiction is not a choice... it's a connection disorder.

Addiction isn't a problem... it's actually a solution. A solution to numb the pain, angst, anxiety, fear, rage, depression, sadness, loneliness and suffering. There's nothing wrong with wanting to be out of pain. It's how we try deal with the pain that's the stem of the issue.

Recovery is a lot of work – but not nearly as much work as active addiction.

If you're willing to do the work, there's a life of freedom on the other side.

Genius Recovery can help. At Genius Recovery you'll find:

- ▶ Exclusive Expert Interviews to Educate & Inspire Better Health, More Happiness, Global Change, Plus Serenity & Sobriety
- ▶ Professional Guidance To Help You Or Someone Close Get The Help And Support They Need
- ▶ Comprehensive Resource Center To Explore A "Genius" Curated List Of The Best Blogs, Websites, Apps, & Organizations For Recovery

- I've GOT a specialized medical practice
- That GIVES proactive, results-driven individuals the knowledge and services that gets them access to improved health. Our specialty is helping women with their most intimate concerns and recovery from surgery.
- That GETS them improved self esteem, better self-discovery and living life feeling even more connected with themselves.
- I want HELP with introduction to women groups who I can speak to and educate women about their intimate health.

BIOGRAPHY

As a passionate entrepreneur and physician, I lead the Ong Institute with a singular focus: enhancing recovery and performance for patients dedicated to proactive health management. Our approach centers on amplifying the body's natural regenerative powers and boosting cellular efficiency, particularly following surgical procedures.

Creativity fuels my professional journey, reaching its zenith in my signature Labia Sculpting™ surgery. This innovative procedure is more than a medical treatment; it's an art form that instills internal confidence in women, aligning their physical well-being with their self-esteem.

Beyond the confines of the clinic, I find joy and inspiration in the serenity of nature, particularly around water. My love for the outdoors is matched by my appreciation for exquisite cuisine and the simple pleasure of a good laugh. :-)

I am – a healer, an innovator, and a lifelong learner.

Jeff Hays Films

BIOGRAPHY

Jeff Hays, an award winning filmmaker, author, and television producer since the early nineties, gained national attention with Fahrenhype 9/11 (2004), a response to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11. He followed that with On Native Soil (2006). Narrated by Kevin Costner and Hilary Swank, the documentary focused on the perspective of surviving family members of 9/11 victims and their efforts to create the 9/11 Commission. The film was acquired by Lions Gate and NBC and was short-listed for an Academy Award.

Hays produced a yearlong television series for Lifetime Television, and then returned to documentary film with Doctored in 2012, and Bought in 2014. In 2017, Jeff partnered with Dr. Patrick Gentempo to create Revealed Films. and together, they have released many multi-part series covering subjects including, health and nutrition, medical issues, wealth- building, religious and political topics. (Money Revealed, Vaccines Revealed, Crypto Revealed, End Game, GMOs Revealed, etc.) Revealed Films launches 5-6 series each year adding the rich stream of information they've produced in the past.

Revealed recently released a series on the use of psychedelics in therapy, Psychedelics Revealed, and is filming for a new series on marriage and relationships.

In addition to the Revealed projects Jeff Hays Films was the Executive Producer for The Fix, a documentary series based on Johann Hari's NY Times bestseller, Chasing the Scream - which was made into both an Academy Award-nominated film and an eight-part TV series presented by Samuel L. Jackson. JHF has acquired the rights to three other books to produce via film, the NY Times bestseller, Lost Connections, by Johann Hari and The Bad One, by Erin Tyler and The Real Anthony Fauci, by Bobby Kennedy, Jr.

Additionally, JHF is producing a series with Adam Carolla on resilience, and just completed The Millionaire Within Her with Kristi Frank.

In 2021, JHF also produced Amy Redford's new narrative film, Feathers, which is completed and will be released in 2022.

JHF has completed principal photography on the Andre Norman bio-doc, Unshackled, to be released in 2022.

The covid lockdowns of 2020 provided ample time to finish two books, one on entrepreneurship, The Entrepreneurial Brain. And a second on spirituality called Love and Drugs; Tripping through Trauma to Joy. Both will be released with a major publisher in 2022.

- That GIVES expertise on how to build value in your business to position to exit.
- That GETS over-market outcomes for entrepreneurs selling their businesses.
- I want HELP to leverage marketing to reach entrepreneurs effectively.

BIOGRAPHY

John is currently the Managing Director & Partner of align5, in partnership with STS, a strategic advisory consultancy and coaching firm and CEO of Scaling Up Coaches.

With over 25 years of experience as an entrepreneur, CEO and investment banker, John co-founded align5 in 2013 (in partnership with STS Capital) to advise growth company entrepreneurs and family enterprises on a variety of strategic issues including sell-side and buy-side M&A. In January of 2021 John reengaged as a Managing Director with STS Capital Partners, a boutique investment bank specializing in middle market M&A.

John was also the founder and CEO of Appletree Answers, a telephone answering service company he started in 1995. He grew the company organically by implementing strategies from Rockefeller Habits 2.0 (the Scaling Up methodology) and through a series of acquisitions to 24 U.S. locations and 650 employees. John sold Appletree Answers to a strategic buyer in June 2012 using STS Capital Partners to get a 300% over market outcome!

In his role at Scaling Up Coaches, John leverages years of business experience and relationships with thought leaders to grow a dynamic community of coaches. The community of coaches collectively advise over 2500 companies worldwide.

John is passionate about strategy, company culture and employee engagement. It was that focus on culture that drove Appletree to record growth and profitability and ultimately drove a strategic valuation style exit. One key driver of that value was 18% turnover in an industry that averaged 150%.

John is a member of the YPO Philadelphia chapter since 2007, EO Philadelphia chapter since 2004 and is a graduate of the Birthing of Giants class of 2008. He is active in Virgin Unite, a charitable foundation created by Sir Richard Branson. John is based in Wilmington, Delaware. When not working on strategy or M&A John is an avid pilot with well over 5000 hours in the air. He currently enjoys flying the company TBM850 Turboprop for both work and pleasure.

Richmond Integrative and Functional Medicine

- I've GOT a brick and mortar functional and integrative medicine (FM) practice, clinical research company and online FM educational resources.
- That GIVES hope to those who after seeing multiple doctors and specialists have either been told by the medical system there is nothing wrong with them or that they can't be helped
- That GETS them the tools and guidance they need for their body to do what it was designed to do: self heal and self repair.
- I want HELP I want help scaling the online business to increase my impact and share with others what I have learned so that they, too, can achieve seemingly impossible results.

BIOGRAPHY

In 2007, my wife, Becky, and I embarked on a life-changing journey when we welcomed our first adopted child, Anna, into our home. Frustrated with a medical system that offered limited hope for her future and suggested invasive procedures, we knew there had to be a better way. This realization led us to explore alternative approaches and sparked a profound transformation in our lives.

This shift not only influenced our personal choices, such as our diet and living environment, but it also gradually reshaped my professional perspective. Inspired by the lessons we learned and the positive changes we experienced, I reevaluated my approach to medicine, ultimately leading me to establish a functional medicine practice.

Today, my brick-and-mortar practice serves as a haven for people from all over the country grappling with complex, undiagnosed health issues. These patients, often overlooked by traditional specialists and university medical centers, find hope and support through our cutting-edge medical therapies that are difficult to find elsewhere.

Through this transformative journey, both my personal and professional life has been enriched. I am committed to sharing the invaluable knowledge and experiences that have shaped my approach to functional medicine, while also learning from the diverse perspectives and expertise of others. Together, we can make a positive impact on the lives of countless individuals, empowering them to take control of their health and well-being.

Studio 48 Med Spa & Wellness

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Aaron Kovac, DC, is a talented chiropractor and physiotherapist who provides multidisciplinary care to patients at his Phoenix, Arizona practice, Studio 48 Med Spa & Wellness. He graduated from Life Chiropractic College West in 2001 and holds certifications in full body Active Release Technique (ART), physiotherapy, fascial movement muscle taping, and Manipulation Under Anesthesia (MUA). Dr. Kovac utilizes his versatile training in ART, Diversified, Pettibon, and Chiropractic Biophysics (CBP) techniques to provide the best in individualized chiropractic care for each of his patients in Ahwatukee Foothills. Dr. Kovac takes pride in treating patients from all walks of life, from professional athletes to local families.

A native of Scottsdale, Arizona, Dr. Kovac is an avid athlete who was inspired to become a chiropractor after suffering a childhood head injury that left him in severe pain with many neurological problems. After traditional medical treatments failed to treat his injury, chiropractic care was the only thing that helped him heal. Today Dr. Kovac enjoys staying active by weightlifting, cycling, running, hiking, and spending quality family time with his wife and three children.

.....When you realize you are at the center of the world you are living everyday, you can intentionally take that power back to fully embrace your rightful freedom. This realization came to me with no grace my friends. In 2008, I was the poster child of success. I had the beautiful family, the prestigious career as a Doctor and business owner, and all the things money could buy except one ... freedom. That reality hit its hardest when my precious two year old daughter was diagnosed with brain cancer. The cancer had spread all over her spine and she was given a death sentence (she is now 16, a freshman in high school with an education of a 4th grader, because of the cancer treatments and the hormones of a 16 year old girl:), AND THE GREATEST TEACHER OF ALL TIME..) . I stood as a broken man and held to God's love and strength.

Even with the devastation of the diagnosis, the life I had built gave me no mercy. I still had to show up. I had a family to provide for, bills to pay, and a staff that counted on me for the security I had promised to them. I had to be there for my daughter and my days were riddled with hospital visits and discussions with her Doctors, all while taking care of my 4 year old son. My picture perfect life enslaved me to it. Yes, I was a business owner so one would think I had more freedom, but as most business owner's learn quickly, you are the hub and driving force of your business. There was no buffer, there was no break. This was the lowest point of my life.

I was an intrapreneur with an entrepreneur mindset. There had to be a way out, there had to be a better way of living and my situation forced me to either sink or swim ... and that was when I decided to come up for air and take my power back. The freedom I desired lay in the structure of my systems, the people I included, and the strategies I created. Years later, my approach of Intentional Freedom has skyrocketed my business into record heights and gifted me the freedom I so desperately desired to explore, grow, create, and truly live life. I am undefined by my occupation and am defined by my freedom, what I love, and what I place as priority. Now I am here to share Intentional Freedom with you so you can do the same.

Zema d.o.o.

- I've GOT Two businesses - one doing information security and one personal development - teaching NLP, coaching, law of attraction and hypnosis.
- That GIVES clients tools to transform their mindset, habits, and behavior, enabling them to achieve their desired results in the shortest possible time.
- That GETS them help to become more focused, determined, peaceful, and flexible, assisting them in attaining the wealth, career, relationships, health, joy, and freedom they seek.
- I want HELP to expand my business from Slovenia to English-speaking countries and seeking advice on how to delegate more effectively to focus on higher-value tasks.

BIOGRAPHY

My name is Aleksander Sinigoj, and I am from Slovenia, the only country with 'love' in its name, boasting a population of just 2 million people. I am blessed with a wonderful wife, four children, and a very stubborn but kind and loving dog. I own two businesses: one specializes in information security, and the other focuses on personal development, which is my passion. I deeply enjoy teaching the law of attraction, NLP, coaching, and hypnosis. As a volunteer, I support events by Tony Robbins as a trainer and also assist Dr. Richard Bandler, the co-founder of NLP. I hold certification programs in NLP, coaching, and hypnosis. Of all these areas, hypnosis fascinates me the most.

BIOGRAPHY

Meet Dr. Amie Hornaman, also known as "The Thyroid-Fixer." She's not your typical health expert; she's your guide to a vibrant, empowered life at the intersection of medicine and alternative health.

As the dynamic host of the chart-topping podcast, "The Thyroid Fixer™," people from all corners of the globe converge to uncover secrets of thyroid and hormone optimization, learning how to be the badass humans they are meant to be.

She is the visionary creator and founder of The Fixxr™ Supplement Line, meticulously crafted to address common challenges such as weight management, energy depletion, diminished libido, and hormonal imbalances. These supplements are not just products; they're pivotal tools for enhancing your quality of life.

Dr. Amie knows the frustration of feeling misunderstood in the medical world. She's been there. During her NPC figure competition days, her own body rebelled against her, leading to endless misery, misdiagnoses, and bad treatments. That's when she decided to be the hero she wished she had.

Dr. Amie is your partner in health. She takes your hand and guides you to answers nobody else has given you. With personalized treatment plans and a sharp focus on optimizing your thyroid and hormones, she sees you as a unique individual, not just a set of lab numbers. She dives deep into all the factors causing thyroid issues and symptoms so that once again, you can be the badass human you were meant to be.

BIOGRAPHY

"Known to many as The Ambassador Of Hope, Andre's experience and expertise is what empowers him to help people turn their situation around. Andre travels around the world to serve as a mentor and listening ear for so many in need. He has made an impact working in the countries of Honduras, Bahamas, Sweden, Guatemala, Liberia & Trinidad. With inclusion being the center of his solution-based efforts.

From illiteracy to gang activity, Andre's childhood prepared him for nothing less than a life of crime and violence. This behavior eventually led Andre to be sentenced to over 100 years in prison. A natural-born leader, he quickly rose to the top of the prison gang where he managed gang activities from within the confines of a maximum-security prison. During his 2 year stay in solitary confinement. Andre had an "epiphany" and he made the decision to turn his life around. He had a simple dream, attend Harvard University and become successful.

Over the next 8 years, Andre worked 20 hours per day towards making this dream a reality. First teaching himself to read, then studying the law and without question participating in anger management groups. Winning his appeal and armed with a GED and a dream, Andre walked out of prison in 1999, having served 14 years. Having been exposed to both sides of the fence, Andre pulled from his life experiences and created 180x, a program designed to teach individuals and corporations how to turn any situation around. Having survived rock bottom, Andre knew he could help others do the same.

Andre has lectured at Harvard University, He has been a featured speaker at MIT's Department of Urban Studies and Planning. Andre collaborates with the London Business School Executive Education department to design unique experiential learning labs for some of its top clients including Prudential Insurance (UK), Bovis Lend Lease, (AUS), Deutsche Bank (Germany), British Petroleum, UK), Ericsson (Sweden), DANONE (France) KPMG and more."

YT Era

- I've GOT the ultimate YouTube marketing done-for-you solution, and it's not just for businesses; it's for businesses that want to crush it on YouTube!
- That GIVES brands the dual strengths of advanced YouTube strategy and leading-edge execution, essential for achieving the authority, credibility, reach, and influence that only an active and evergreen YouTube marketing approach can deliver. It's like creating more customers out of thin air, adding more than 24 hours to your day, all while spending less and earning more.
- That GETS increased total revenue, multiple income streams, heightened brand recognition, unbeatable audience engagement, and loyalty. Plus, you can't beat the discoverability. Lets put you at the top of the world's two most prominent search engines. We specialize in lead generation from pre-qualified prospects, nurturing thriving communities, and creating an unbeatable competitive edge.
- I want help finding the next business YouTube channel we can skyrocket. We're seeking visionary businesses that offer real solutions to the world's most pressing issues in health and wealth.

BIOGRAPHY

In 2018, Andrew became obsessed with YouTube, where he discovered the potential of video content to transform lives. Faced with adversity himself, he found solace in self-improvement videos that catalyzed a profound shift in his mindset, finances, and overall health. This transformative experience sparked a powerful realization - the true impact YouTube could have on the world is through entrepreneurship and business marketing.

He founded YT Era in Jan 2022, a comprehensive YouTube marketing solution that seeks to redefine the conventional marketing strategies employed by businesses and entrepreneurs. YT Era emerged not just as a business, but as a beacon of hope and change in the rapidly-evolving digital landscape.

YT Era's mission is to amplify solutions that have the power to change the world, changing the way businesses and entrepreneurs market themselves, and opening doors to unprecedented levels of success. YT Era is not just about marketing; it's about reshaping narratives, enhancing credibility, and exponentially growing influence, reach, and sales.

The unique approach that YT Era takes involves an emphasis on always prioritizing the viewer. By 'cloning' you in the digital sphere, those videos help the business create a profound impact, multiplying awareness and expanding your footprint in the market. This approach resonates deeply with the audience, building strong connections and effectively turning viewers into loyal customers.

Through YT Era, Andrew is driven to create a paradigm shift in YouTube marketing. The YT Era Team takes businesses on a transformative journey, nurturing their growth, boosting their sales, and placing them at the forefront of their respective industries. This journey, however, is not a one-way street. In this process, entrepreneurs learn the art of viewer-centric marketing, a skill that not only benefits their business but also enriches their personal understanding of effective communication and connection.

Who does Andrew want to be a hero to?

People who find themselves at rock bottom, just as he did five years ago. Andrew's purpose is to connect with individuals who can't see a way out, who grapple with feelings of failure. Through impactful business YouTube channels, his mission is to uplift and empower these people, using the platform to change the world.

BIOGRAPHY

Antonio Green is a fourth generation funeral director at his family's firm James H. Cole Home for Funerals, located in Detroit, MI. Receiving his high school education from a Jesuit school, University of Detroit Jesuit High School, truly molded his life's goal in becoming a Man for Others.

Antonio has been a licensed mortician in the state of Michigan for over 15 years. After receiving his Bachelor's Degree in Communications from Bowling Green State University, Antonio decided to pursue his passion of helping others in their greatest time of need, and continue his family's legacy of funeral service, by attending the Cincinnati College of Mortuary Science. Upon graduation, he immediately transitioned to full time employment at the funeral home and began to diligently work to modernize the business. It was that "new blood" and fresh thinking which led to the development of the firm's new location on the Northwest side of the city; and in 2010, the newly constructed facility was opened with Antonio at its helm.

It was also in 2010 when Antonio married the love of his life, Angel, and they now built a beautiful family which consists of three extraordinary children; Nolan, Berkeley, and Jaxson.

In 2021, Antonio took on the task of becoming a published author. His book "Talk to Me - Understanding the Millennial Mindset" was developed to help people better understand and professionally collaborate with the Millennial generation, specifically small business owners. Through his visionary leadership and skills with recognizing strategic solutions, Antonio began the process of identifying critical indicators for success.

Using his experience and expertise in his own firm, Antonio has made it his pledge to support family-owned businesses improve and enhance their companies.

In 2019, he launched the James H. Cole Legacy Foundation. The foundation was formed to focus on helping the inner-city youth of Detroit and providing aid to other non-profits which seek to help the less fortunate, hardworking citizens of Detroit.

Attila Pongor-Juhasz

- I want HELP with an introduction to Kieth J Cunningham with the aim of publishing his Road less stupid book in Hungarian and with holding me accountable to leave my comfort to my Winner's Zone.

BIOGRAPHY

I have a mission and a passion.

My missions is to bring the best entrepreneurial mindset and knowledge books from North America to my Hungarian business owners and entrepreneurs translated into Hungarian. More then 85% of Hungarian business owners don't read/understand English well enough so for them this a crucial way to learn and implement from the best. Among many others, we have published several of Dan Sullivan's books (Who not how with Ben Hardy, 25 year plan, Gap and gain, 4C Formula, Wanting what you want etc), Verne Harnish's Rockefeller habits, Mike Michalowicz' Clockwork and Profit first, Gino Wickman's Traction, Jeff Walker's Launch, Dean Jackson's 8 profit activators, Napoleon Hill's Think and grow Rich and many more.

My passion is to teach my fellow Hungarian business owners and entrepreneurs through speakings, blogging and high level mastermind/coaching programs. Why? Because of their transformation: how their personal and business development have impacts on their family life, kids, their team members and their communities.

I also authored two bestseller business books (in Hungarian): The Time Millionaire entrepreneurs (on time management) and The Heart-based marketing.

From the deep of my heart I share Joe's conviction that we, business owners and entrepreneurs, we can change the world.

I am very grateful for my mentors Dan Sullivan, Jeff Walker and Brian Kurtz. They have a huge impact on the person, husband, father, friend, employer, mentor I became. Since 2013 I am so fortunate to be a part of their 10X Coaching and Platinum Plus mastermind programs.

- That GETS our clients the ability to fast-track achievement, take control in challenging situations, and exceed professional and personal goals.
- I want HELP turning my consulting and coaching practice into a million-dollar business.

BIOGRAPHY

Barry Garapedian is the President and CEO of MAG 7 Consulting, a boutique coaching, mentoring, and advisory firm that caters to high-school and college-aged students. The MAG 7 program has distilled and codified key principles of achievement and paths to success which propel young people to meet their highest potential in all aspects of life.

Speak with Barry for a few minutes and you will likely find his energy, positivity, and zest for life contagious. Not surprisingly, the MAG 7 program is as equally dynamic. Key elements teach the next generation how to develop and maintain key life-hack habits, have a positive mindset consistently, and create structure and discipline in life. Performance models and methods are robust and all-encompassing. Barry's passion for mentoring and teaching has been a constant theme in his life. For over 15 years he has volunteered as a Career Coach at Pepperdine University. Having mentored close to 1,000 students over the years, Barry is a sought-after speaker at Business Fraternities, Student Professional Clubs and the Pepperdine Ambassadors Council. Many of Barry's students keep in touch with him for advice and guidance for years on end.

Barry spent 39 years as a Financial Advisor with Morgan Stanley, where he was Managing Director, a team founder, and the recipient of national recognition from The Financial Times and Barron's. Throughout his career on Wall Street, Barry worked closely with clients and their children. He looked to foster value that extended beyond a family's balance sheet, helping families create positive dynamics through strategic advice, practical guidance, and a forthright perspective.

A native Southern Californian, he graduated from the University of Southern California with a B.A. in Public Policy. While studying at USC, he worked as a private tennis instructor and also worked as a performing magician at the iconic Magic Castle in Los Angeles. Barry remains an avid tennis player and still enjoys doing magic as a hobby.

Barry and his wife Sharon have two adult children, Missy Lou and Scotland, who are professionals in Southern California. In his free time, Barry stays very active. His hobbies include mountain-bike riding, yoga, weightlifting, tennis, swimming—including open-water endurance swims, Ironman® triathlons, and heli-skiing. A black belt in martial arts, he is committed to fitness and nutrition, mindful of the profound mind-body connection. He approaches his intellectual life with the same vigor and is an avid reader, maintaining, "life is about the books you read and the people you meet." A loyal Dodger fan and season-ticketholder, he loves to go to games with family and friends.

Barry believes strongly in the value of giving back to others—through financial support, but also through active participation as a volunteer, demonstrating his interest in others' lives. He has served on many Boards, including the Olive View UCLA Medical Center and the Armenian Film Foundation. Barry is especially honored to be named "Father of the Year" by the American Diabetes Association and the National Father's Day Council in June of 2009. He is currently serving on the Board of the Cancer Support Community VVSB, the Crest Board at Pepperdine University and the Pomegranate Foundation.

- That GIVES our members science-backed tools and information to optimize their health and well-being.
- That GETS them personalized health solutions and the ability to restore their health and hope.
- I want HELP maximizing revenue and member satisfaction through optimized sales processes and enhanced engagement

BIOGRAPHY

You can call me Becky, but in writing, I love to see "Rebekah".

I'm a mom of three with a background in occupational therapy. My journey has taken some interesting turns over the years, including adopting one of my patients (our oldest daughter, Anna) when her foster home was closing. She's changed everything - our family, our lifestyle, our business, our hearts. We continued to grow our family through adoption and have created healthy relationships with many of our kids' biological family members.

Beyond my family life, I'm also a Co-CEO of Richmond Integrative and Functional Medicine with my husband Aaron (also a Genius Network member). We're dedicated to providing ways for our patients and community members to get the answers they need to take control of their health.

As a pediatric occupational therapist by training, I'm passionate about advocating for families and children with special needs. I've worked with children with a variety of diagnoses and bring a unique perspective to the intersection of health and wellness.

My superpower is conducting in-depth research on almost any topic. Lately, I am enjoying diving into AI and thinking through the possibilities - my ultimate dream being to create something akin to our own "Super Brain" to leverage Aaron's insight, training, and knowledge and make it accessible to anyone needing healing and hope. Having dealt with my own chronic health issues, I have a deep desire to see others living healthy, vibrant lives.

I'm grateful to be here and can't wait to connect with like-minded individuals passionate about making a difference in the world.

- That GIVES The ability to base important business decisions on accurate, timely, and future-focused accounting information.
- That GETS Clarity into big picture decisions and growth-focused forecasting and planning.
- I want HELP Finding new and creative ways to connect with entrepreneur in a digital world to learn

BIOGRAPHY

I am the co-founder of AccountingDepartment.com. After two failed businesses, I learned that quality accounting gave a full picture of what was happening in a business--and I had sorely lacked that. So in 2004 I partnered with Dennis Najjar, CPA and we set out on a mission to transform the way entrepreneurs not only viewed their accounting, but handled their entire accounting departments. I've written, spoken, and taught on the topic of clarity and understanding in financial accounting and am passionate about helping other entrepreneurs avoid the lessons I had to learn by failing. Most of all, I'm on a mission to make sure your accounting is helping you grow your business.

Promethean Marketing, Inc.

- I've GOT a Marketing Agency and a Publishing Company
- That GIVES small cap public companies access to targeted retail investors through direct response marketing
- That GETS our clients capital confidence, organic coverage and freedom to focus.

BIOGRAPHY

I've always sought to do things better and not accept the status quo, whether I was installing cabling for data centers or marketing products and companies. My career has been built around integrity in all that I do and all who are in my circle of people, which is why I am quick to pass or let go of anyone who is working as a mercenary/merely for money. My team and I have managed multiple online and offline campaigns, raising over $350 million for our clients. I have grown to believe the best way to learn something is to teach it to others and growth is a rewarding, never-ending journey. In my free time, I enjoy spending time with my family, reading, riding motorcycles, clearing my mind in the mountains and listening to Frank Sinatra.

BIOGRAPHY

In 2001, I founded RedZone Technologies, driven by a straightforward yet powerful mission - to bring world-class security and innovation to every customer we serve. With over two decades under my belt, I've seen the cybersecurity landscape evolve, and with it, our approach and solutions have dynamically adapted.

Aiming to secure over a billion lives, RedZone Technologies is a testament to our unwavering commitment to IT security innovation. Rooted in our ethos, "Delivering on Promises and Customers for Life," we are not just a cybersecurity firm but a devoted ally in your security journey. Every layer of our operation is imbued with this philosophy, ensuring that while the landscapes of technology and threats evolve, our reliability and dedication to our customers remains steadfast. In the complex world of cybersecurity, we are the constant you can rely on, always ahead and always ready with cutting-edge, dependable solutions.

Bobby Cardwell

Wellthy Network

- I've GOT a couple of successful companies, HealthMeans (a production company specializing in virtual summits and masterclasses), Magpai (a SASS product focusing on audience assessments), and Growth Loop (a list monetization service).
- That GIVES our clients the resources needed to create, reach, and connect with highly engaged audiences.
- That GETS them instant credibility, a highly engaged following, and the resources to continue to grow that audience through user-friendly, turn-key services that are easy to use and do not require a "tech team" just to be successful.
- I want HELP to create connections that will challenge me, stretch my thinking, and create a space for inspiring conversations to help each other grow.

BIOGRAPHY

Most importantly, I am the husband of an amazingly beautiful woman and father of 2 batshit crazy boys (4 & 5), who I love more than anything. I've been an entrepreneur for as long as I can remember, always hustling and creating ways to "make things better", things that I saw as inefficient or too complex. This has opened many doors over the years and even allowed me to "accidentally" create a company that grew from zero to $5M in the first year. 10 years later, we have reached over 5M people, produced over 10,000 talks, and manage an audience of nearly 10M.

Having experienced many lessons, this has led me to realize that win or lose, the only thing that matters is happiness. Over the last 2 years, I've been transforming myself and my company creating rock-solid integrity, strength of our word, being conscious of who we are and who we work with, and elevating those around us through innovation, quality, and creativity.

Brad Wilde

Miravista Holdings, LLC

BIOGRAPHY

Brad Wilde is the Manger/Owner of Miravista Holdings, a real estate investment and development entity that has been active in metropolitan Phoenix for over 35 years.

From early in his career, Mr. Wilde has sought out and focused on off-market projects fraught with both complexity and strong economic potential. An early effort involved the acquisition and exchange of nearly 12,500 acres of private and public (BLM) lands. The BLM received some 7,500 acres of private (now public) lands along the I-17 corridor, north of Phoenix. The project team (in the exchange) took title to over 5,000 acres of property north of Casa Grande – now called “Copper Mountain.”

Over the years, Mr. Wilde and his team focused their efforts on brownfield properties – those with blighted or challenging environmental issues. An example of some of those transformational projects include:

- Playa del Norte, Tempe (13 acres)
 - o Underdeveloped north side of Tempe Town Lake to office, retail, residential and hospitality
- Valley Steel and Supply, Tempe (22 acres)
 - o Heavy industrial scrap and recycling yard to warehouse and light manufacturing
- Southwest Wholesale Cooperative, Phoenix (25 acres)
 - o Remediation of a heavy industrial rail-served site...to a City of Phoenix airport parking facility

A noteworthy project was the assemblage and remediation of some 110 acres of property, including 50 parcels of former county lands. A redevelopment district was formed, property annexed into Tempe, the overall site remediated and de-listed from the Superfund...and “Tempe Marketplace” became a premier retail destination in metropolitan Phoenix. The effort, a public/private partnership with Tempe, won a Valley Forward “Environmental Excellence” award.

Each of these efforts, and several others, brought about physical transformation to these sites, but most importantly – jobs, housing, sales and property taxes for the community.

Key to Brad’s ongoing success is his commitment to neighborhood and community engagement. For almost 30 years, Brad volunteered his time and experience to Crossroads, Inc. – the largest (in-patient) substance abuse provider in Metropolitan Phoenix. Since its founding over 60 years ago, Crossroads has provided services to over 65,000 men and women – and their families. Brad was directly responsible for the planning and acquisition of Crossroads’ last 6 (of 8 total) facilities. Over the years, as a board member, and the Board Chairman, Brad helped shepherd the organization’s growth from a small (2 facilities) halfway house to a substantial and well-respected behavioral health treatment center.

Additional Community engagement efforts also included, Mens Art Council, Board Member of Phoenix Art Museum, Board Member of Rio Salado Foundation, and the ASU Presidents Club.

Mr. Wilde is a native of suburban Chicago and a graduate of the University of Arizona (political science and economics) and has professional affiliations that include the Urban Land Institute and Pinal Partnership.

Titans Marketing

- I've GOT 40+ years of direct marketing experience with two high-level mastermind groups for multi-channel direct marketers.
- That GIVES actionable strategies, tactics, coaching and feedback to make sure you are as diversified with all of your marketing efforts and with state-of-the-art methodologies from the world's best experts.
- That GETS breakthrough results through marketing diversification, implementing world-class direct marketing creative and media.
- I want HELP with introductions to people who need this kind of training and ideas on the best experts my groups and I can learn the most from.

BIOGRAPHY

Brian Kurtz has been a serial direct marketer for over 40 years and never met a medium he didn't like...and while he's had much success, he also must admit that trying to sell subscriptions and books on the back of ATM receipts and under yogurt lids was only "a good idea at the time..." Brian left his beloved Boardroom Inc. in 2015 where he was responsible for the mailing of close to 2 billion pieces of direct mail in his career (and he did NOT lick every stamp!); and he was also responsible for the distribution of millions of other impressions and promotions in a wide variety of alternate media, both offline and online, using the most innovative direct marketing techniques while working with the most legendary copywriters and consultants who have ever lived. His mission for the next 40 years is to be the bridge between the eternal truths of direct response marketing and all that is considered state-of-the-art direct response marketing today. In September of 2014, to kick off that mission, Brian hosted what has been called the event of the decade: "Titans of Direct Response." Brian writes and speaks regularly; recent content can be found at www.briankurtz.me/blog. His first book, The Advertising Solution, was published in 2016. His second book, Overdeliver, came out in April 2019. But truth be told, Brian is really just a Little League Baseball Umpire and does this direct marketing stuff on the side...his ultimate goal is to umpire in the Little League World Series in Williamsport, PA while he is still upright...and he hopes it happens soon...

Brian's 3 most recent of his 13 different presentations in Genius Network are below... but one he really wants you to watch is his Ten Minute Talk: "6 Eternal Truths From 6 Dead Mad Men" at <https://geniusnetworkgroup.com/6-eternal-truths-from-6-dead-mad-men/> .

BEAM Minerals

- I've GOT simple information about how to help people feel better. I've also got the simplest, most natural and easiest to consume mineral supplements. They are called BEAM Minerals.
- That GIVES Our products help people come alive from the inside - that includes ourselves, our BEAM Team, our customers, partners, practitioners, wholesalers, collaborators, vendors, affiliates, influencers, friends, family and children. Our approach to bringing our products to the world is about "freedom and friendship" which is a way of seeing and being in the world that values every single interaction. We endeavor to smuggle love into every conversation, product, system, process, task, meeting, etc.
- That GETS The results we hear from people about our products is that they finally feel that they have found the "missing piece" in their health. Things that they thought they would have to live with forever begin to change whether those are eating habits, mood issues, cognition challenges, cramping, gut issues, inflammation issues, etc. It's not magic, it's science. It's like turning the dimmer up on a light -- fuel the cells, energize the body, so that it can do what it naturally can do. The results we experience with our employees, contractors, customers, partners, collaborators, etc., is that working with BEAM is healing. That their interactions within and with our company have a palpable and qualitative affect in their lives, bringing a sense of safety and joy at being seen, heard, reflected and then supported. :-)
- I want HELP in bringing the conversation about minerals, this next vanguard of health, to the world. I am looking for Main Stage speaking opportunities at health and wellness events and conferences (both DTC and Practitioner focused) and opportunities to appear on Podcasts with significant followers. I am in the process of writing a book about my own story and what I learned through my research that made me into a Mineral Geek. I am looking for a ghost writer who can help me with this. I have spoken with a few, but have not found the ONE. This is a hih-priority as I want to complete this in 2024!!!

BIOGRAPHY

I am Caroline Alan and I am a Mineral Geek. I didn't make that up, people just started calling me that because i couldn't stop talking about how minerals changed my life. We have this saying, "Dumb as Rocks", but it turns out that minerals are incredibly smart and are the foundation for the health of cells, which is what our entire bodies are made of.

I am a person who has had many careers, starting out as a Choreographer and singer/songwriter, then turning into a carpenter/contractor (in NYC), which led me into computers and technology, where I was on the front of the wave, building websites for businesses who were just learning what a "mouse click" was and then on to leading large distributed software projects. It turns out, it was all choreography.

I've been an outlier most of my life, seeking spiritually, being a woman in male-dominated fields, and working on the front end of technologies and ideas . . . and even now, with minerals, on the vanguard of health. I love to take things that are hard to understand and make them simple, so that anyone can gain value and apply the information to upgrade their own life. It turns out this is like songwriting: Taking a big idea and essentializing it (that's my new word) down to something that makes people lean in, because they can see/feel something that's meaningful.

Ninjette Marketing

- I've GOT A startup inverse agency; an incredibly diverse online network of friends and associates around the world; a polymath personality; part ownership of a crowdfounded DAO
- That GIVES Uncommon ways to improve their business without taking large financial risks. Using small ideas to get big results.
- That GETS More leads, increased revenue, more efficient use of resources, big returns from small commitments.
- I want HELP Setting up my own online assets, more exposure, start my email list and semi-paid group, a full pipeline so I can spend all my time helping people with business and marketing strategy.

BIOGRAPHY

I planned to write a clever bio during my layover in San Jose, but I ended up taking an elderly woman in a wheelchair to the bathroom. There were no airline attendants and the gate agent couldn't even watch our bags. So I asked a man in another wheelchair to watch our carry-on bags (no way HE could take off with them!) and helped my new friend.

So here are the facts:
Born and raised in Denver, CO as an academic nerd (valedictorian, full academic scholarship to Vanderbilt, Truman Scholar, etc.)

Escaped becoming a ski bum by moving to Hawaii where I discovered the joy of golf on a bank expense account. In my spare time I convinced wealthy people to rearrange their financial lives and pay us thousands of dollars a year to make sure everything went smoothly when they died. Plus I trained others to do the same. My most effective seminars took place at the 19th hole.

Turns out that was like Navy SEAL boot camp for selling things people can taste, touch, test drive, see results while they're alive, and even get a money back refund!

Kurzweil Technologies

- I've GOT "The Singularity Is Nearer" - a new book by inventor and futurist Ray Kurzweil brings a fresh perspective to the technological advances detailed in his 2005 award-winning NYT best-seller, "The Singularity Is Near". He assesses the progress of his many predictions and examines the novel advancements that, in the near future, will bring a revolution in knowledge and an expansion of human potential.
- That GIVES A remedy for concerns about the existential threat posed by General Artificial Intelligence. He emphasizes that these machines are crafted by humans, intentionally reflecting human attributes, morality, and ethical considerations. Moreover, he instills optimism for a future enriched by the promising possibilities that AI brings.
- That GETS A fact-based examination of the state of technological progress and actionable intelligence for future scenario planning.
- I want HELP Promotional opportunities, channels, and new audiences for Ray's new book.

BIOGRAPHY

Celia Black is an accomplished professional with a wealth of experience in public relations and marketing communications, specializing in the dynamic intersection of technology and entertainment. Her extensive track record includes securing national print and major network broadcast media placements, orchestrating strategic event public relations, and collaborating with a roster of noteworthy clients.

Among her notable clients are visionaries and innovators such as Ray Kurzweil (author of "The Singularity is Near" and "How to Create a Mind"), Peter Diamandis (author of "Abundance"), entrepreneur Rick Smith (Taser International), bestselling authors Michael Hingson ("Thunder Dog") and Vicki Robin ("Your Money or Your Life"), documentary filmmakers Abby Epstein and Ricki Lake ("Business of Being Born," "Weed the People"), and musician Dave Grohl ("Sound City").

In 2015, Celia established the BRINK Institute, a global think tank and media organization dedicated to exploring and monitoring emerging technology trends and fostering interdisciplinary collaboration across industries to maximize their impact potential.

As the Chief Marketing Officer for Kurzweil Technologies since 1999, Celia has been instrumental in conveying Ray Kurzweil's Law of Accelerating Returns through a range of media, including bestselling books, award-winning films, websites, media appearances, and international speaking engagements. She played a pivotal role in the development of Kurzweil's seminal works such as "The Singularity Is Near," "Fantastic Voyage," "Transcend," and "How to Create a Mind." Additionally, Celia co-founded KurzweilAI.net, an acclaimed science and technology news site, and Transcend.me, a company focused on health, longevity, and well-being science in collaboration with Ray Kurzweil and Dr. Terry Grossman. She has also significantly contributed to K-NFB Reading Technologies, a joint venture with the National Federation of the Blind, bringing assistive technologies to those with visual and learning disabilities. Moreover, Celia played a crucial role in the inception of Singularity University, founded to impart the principles of singularity theory to students worldwide in partnership with Ray Kurzweil and Peter Diamandis (founder of XPrize Foundation).

Chad Corbett

Magnum Opus Project, LLC

- I've GOT A Visionary brain, and a broad range of talents and "Whos", that I'm looking for a way to apply in what's next
- That GIVES Entrepreneurs the ability to connect dots they didn't see connecting on their own
- That GETS them to a life of working less, earning more, and doing good...whatever that means to them
- I want HELP coming out of my "radical sabbatical" & discovering how I get paid for elegant ideas and connections that I give away now (I'm tired of implementing but love ideation and creation)

BIOGRAPHY

Hi, I'm Chad. I'm a nomadic entrepreneur who is addicted to connecting dots (people and opportunities) to find blue oceans and novel ways. My path so far has included the roles of FBI police officer, farmer, cowboy, lumberjack, adventure motorcycle trainer, photojournalist, philanthropist, REALTOR, investor, digital marketer, coach, course creator, investment club founder, vagabond, etc.

I joined GN in Dec. 2022 after a season of significant loss and change and I've sold my companies so I'm looking for a way to help others using my unique abilities, in a way that doesn't become a "golden cage". I hope to connect with other "strange" people like myself that have found a way to serve others at the highest level, turn that value into absurd amounts of cash and use that cash to make the world a better place.

I have a rural cabin in WV, "Walden", but mostly live in an RV in the most beautiful wilderness across North America. I'm often off-grid but I do my best to manage availability via my calendar. If you'd like to connect but failed with email/social you can book me here:

- That GIVES You the leverage to ship your freight easily anywhere in North America
- That GETS Unique solutions that make your supply chain even more efficient
- I want HELP growing into a $1 Billion company by 2026 and becoming a better me

BIOGRAPHY

I love challenges. Our team has grown our logistics business, Taimen Transport, from the foundations at the end of 2012 up to $36 million in revenue in 2018 and successfully managed over $110 million in transportation spend during our first 7 years in business. If your business involves shipping anything too big for a mailbox I'm your guy! We provide managed transportation services and advanced supply chain technology for all modes including full truckload, partial shipments, less-than-truckload, refrigerated, cross-border, over-dimensional, rail, intermodal, and much more! We founded a second asset based trucking company in 2017, Taimen Trucklines, and were able to facilitate $1.5 million in successful deliveries our first fiscal year. Our growth rate in 2018 landed Taimen Transport a spot on the Inc 5000 list of America's fastest growing privately held companies and placed us in the top 100 fastest growing logistics companies in the country. I am truly excited and thankful for the opportunity to meet each of you in Genius Network. I would love to add value in any way I can and will always be a phone call away if you need me. Looking forward to some great new friendships and meeting all of you!

BIOGRAPHY

A very British American, driven by an enduring question: "How can I make this better?" especially in homes, health, and human potential. Everything I do is to get closer to my intentionally unreachable goal of better homes, health and lives for all.

Hubby, pops to 5, grandpops to 2, I'm a personal growth obsessive and health super-geek (alter ego: "The Not Doc"). An avid reader and amateur coach/therapist, I'm open-minded, occasionally obstinate, and always on the quest for better, whilst loving right now. Liverpool FC fan, sun and nature lover, meat-eater, and unapologetically barefooted. While I've got a knack for appreciation, I'm refining my art of praise & recognition. And I think I'm much funnier than I actually am.

If I can help you, I want to, so please ask.

- I want HELP connecting with key entrepreneurs and influencers using and exposing LegacyMaker.co to the world

BIOGRAPHY

My life today is all about having fun helping others WIN and living life to the fullest as a husband, father, author, inventor, investor and entrepreneur head quartered in my home town, Seattle, Washington. I started my first business at the age of 19 and built it into an 8-figure autonomous business in Aerospace and Space and Defense Manufacturing. As a seasoned entrepreneur and Angel Investor, I've experienced a wide variety of businesses from Precision Robotic Manufacturing, Industrial and Green Energy Automation, SaaS, Commercial and Residential real estate, Industrial Product Solutions, Business Consulting, Private Coaching/Mentoring and publishing to founding and growing my life's work through my transformational personal and product growth platforms... lvn|kzn (livin kaizen) and LegacyMaker.co

I've been in business over 35 years, which afforded me the opportunity to take a 10 yr sabbatical (2005-2015) to fulfill my ultimate dream... be a full-time dad to Ashley (26) and Dylan (24) and full-time husband to my wife Lisa of 29 yrs.

After returning from my decade sabbatical, I reinvented my Aerospace company and launched and invested in a number of complimentary businesses over the last few years and have never been more excited to transition from a crazy entrepreneur to a "Next Level Founder"!!

I'm an all-season outdoor enthusiast... mostly powered adrenaline sports and nearly all activities ending "ing"... boating, fly fishing(passion), skiing, snowmobiling, shooting, hiking, mountain biking, paddle boarding, off-roading, etc... the best part is enjoying these amazing activities while "working" and creating memories with my family and friends.

Life hasn't always been this fun...I know pain and childhood trauma... suffered (like most entrepreneurs) from horrible ADD, OCD and dyslexia, dad left me at 12, lost my brother at 26, blinded in my left eye at 26, horrible relationships, health issues, bad alcohol and food addiction, gained over 100lbs, business failures losing millions....

Then I created lvn|kzn and LegacyMaker.co, wrote my first book "Your Life Is Not Your Fault...Until It Is" and life became fun and exciting... I lost 104 lbs, developed amazing relationships and in the best mental and physical shape of my life.

My passion and super power is helping others discover and monetize their unique ability.

Time to have fun doing life and business together!
Let's go serve others!

best way to keep up with me is at www.darrellasutherland.com

BIOGRAPHY

Darrin Carr is the owner and founder of Carr Talent Acquisition which is a recruiting and HR services agency which focuses on Steering Entrepreneurs toward People that Drive Growth

He has personally hired many hundreds in both his corporate and entrepreneurial career. Now his team of recruiters and staff hire an average of once every 2 business days.

Darrin was a Director of Recruiting for several billion dollar+ companies before starting his own hiring agency in 2014. He started his agency to provide a more nuanced process of listening and internalizing client needs to produce a superior candidate pool from which to hire.

Central to Darrin's mission of building better companies and better lives by connecting A Players to A-level companies is the Law of Attraction. If you put enough good things out in the universe, good people come and good things happen. Carr Talent first and foremost "Operates From a Place of Generosity."

The Golden Rule is that A Players Hire A Players so that's what Carr Talent has – the kind of great talent it takes to hire great talent.

Hungry + Humble + Smart + Cultural Fit = a great hire and that's the formula - along with his team's Approach and Poach method of luring the best talent away from where they think they are happy in their jobs.

As a single dad he is currently contending with 11 year old "twin tornadoes" and enjoys being a very engaged father with volleyball, football, pickleball, and basketball outings.

Currently, my focus is on something game-changing. I'm developing a groundbreaking government implemented software to manage and revolutionize Ethiopia's entire healthcare system. The goal is to save countless lives and make a positive impact on less privileged countries, attracting more aid to where it's needed most.

Beyond the hustle, I'm a firm believer in exploring the world through travel, staying fit, and lending a hand to those who need it. My journey is all about combining entrepreneurship with a genuine passion for making the world a better place.

MaxWell Clinic

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. David Haase is a very curious physician, with a medical degree from Vanderbilt University School of Medicine and residency/practice at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. He is double board-certified in Family Medicine and Integrative Holistic Medicine, serves as Lead Faculty for the Institute for Functional Medicine, and has trained over 10,000 physicians worldwide in his approach to Alzheimer's, dementia, and complex chronic illnesses.

In 2003 Dr. Haase founded the MaxWell Clinic as a living laboratory to explore the question "What Creates Health?" and it has grown into a 12,000 sq ft facility in Brentwood, TN, with many clinicians working together using a full spectrum of investigations and interventions. He and his remarkable team are dedicated to applying innovations in the fields of nutrition, genomics, mitochondrial function, systems biology, apheresis, stem-cell programming, and brain optimization so that each patient can lead their happiest and healthiest life.

Dr. David Haase's Deep Dive Program provides an unparalleled, intensive, customized care experience. Patients who join this exclusive program seek the utmost in personalized, cutting-edge performance and longevity care. The insights gained in this intensive path are then taught by Dr. Haase to other clinicians to improve their own practice and outcomes. The MaxWell Clinic Vitality and Longevity Research Center has active partnerships with University researchers and Biotech firms to speed the time it takes to bring leading edge advances into clinical care.

Over the last 10yrs Dr Haase has been pioneering a new approach to slow, halt and even reverse cognitive decline via Holistically Optimized Plasma Exchange to induce multi-tissue regeneration. He is the author of Curiosity Heals The Human: Solving the 'Unsolvables' with Better Questions and Advanced Technologies. Additionally, Dr. Haase serves as a consultant and board member for several biotech and transformative medical science companies. His unwavering dedication to pushing the boundaries of medicine and improving patient care make him a true luminary in the field.

Advanced Wellness and Pain

- I've GOT 2 ketamine clinics in Scottsdale and Gilbert, AZ
- That GIVES a high quality psychedelic experience that addresses the root cause of mental health (depression, anxiety, PTSD) and chronic pain (fibromyalgia, CRPS, migraines) conditions that are resistant to traditional treatments.
- That GETS you unstuck from a rut, a new lease on life, and the ability to snap out of a negative headspace faster
- I want HELP systemizing and scaling my business. Also, creating an online education course and marketing it to further enhance psychedelic therapy

BIOGRAPHY

I am a Board Certified Anesthesiologist and I've been practicing medicine since 2016. I completed three degrees at Drexel University in Philadelphia, PA: a Bachelor in Finance, a Master in Business Administration, and a Doctor of Medicine. I went on to complete residency at the Mount Sinai Morningside-West Hospital System in New York, NY and post-graduate fellowship at Stanford Medical Center in Palo Alto, CA.

I moved to Arizona in 2018 and met my wife here in 2019. We have a daughter who's almost 8 months, and her smiles remind us how grateful we are to be living this life. I'm a hiker, traveler, foodie, poker player, and avid meditator.

I transitioned from traditional anesthesiology to practicing psychedelic medicine in 2020 because I'm disheartened by the way medicine is currently practiced. The healthcare system has become a high-volume low-quality business that focuses on cutting costs in the wrong places and doing more procedures that don't address the root cause of patients' problems. The work I'm doing now is much more spiritually rewarding and I'm still amazed how quickly we can optimize people's mindset with ketamine.

Denice Gierach

BIOGRAPHY

Classic overachiever (still living in denial) looking for a better, more satisfying lifestyle, loves to work with people who still believe that they can make a difference in this world. By trade, I have a law office that specializes in family owned and privately held businesses, helping those businesses to grow. We are business people first, as I have been a real estate developer and involved in a corrugated box plant started from a greenfield operation. I like to think that the lens that I look through is different than any other law office as we think business issues first, as I have been there myself. I love to learn from learning from Dan Sullivan in Strategic Coach™ to a Master Mind Group with Nido Qubein, or reading a book to learn about why we should be optimistic for the future of our planet. I have been active on the boards of a number of charities in my area, including as President of the Naperville Area Humane Society, Board Member on DuPage Community Foundation and Secretary of the Heritage YMCA, as well as being a member of The Rotary Club

Denise Gosnell

BIOGRAPHY

Denise Gosnell is a business strategist, attorney, bestselling author, and real estate investor who owns and operates 3 companies in 3 different industries by working an average of 3 days per week. She is a trusted advisor to many of the world's top entrepreneurs and has spoken on stages in 8 different countries around the world.

For almost two decades, Denise has been a serial entrepreneur and CEO running her consulting business, her law firm, and a real estate company with her husband. Denise used to work 80 hours per week running her 3 companies until her dream home was destroyed in a house fire, which gave her a much-needed perspective shift. She then made it her mission to help herself and others create a business and life they love without sacrificing their income, and The Vacation Effect concept and company (at DeniseGosnell.com) was born.

Denise's bestselling book, The Vacation Effect® for Entrepreneurs (released Nov 29, 2022), shares her personal story and unique methodology for transforming her own life and businesses that you can use to transform yours too. She reveals how you can Grow by Subtraction – by removing from your to-do list – versus adding to it, and how you can escape the “hustle and grind” and create a life full of meaning without sacrificing your business growth.

If you are ready for a quantum leap in your business and life, book Denise for a VIP transformation day or to speak at your next event.

Through her law firm, Gosnell & Associates, P.C., Denise provides general counsel, intellectual property, and Internet legal services on a limited basis to high profile thought leaders, information publishing, coaching, and technology companies. Denise and her husband Jake also own and manage a portfolio of nearly 150 rental properties.

- That GETS our clients grow healthier, more profitable crops and have fun doing it
- I want HELP .to complete an algorithm that predicts yield, to digitize farms and to write a novel tied to chaos theory that will be a best seller

BIOGRAPHY

I "believe i can make a difference by which growers produce food". I am a canola, wheat, lentil, barley and wheat farmer located in Saskatchewan, Canada. We irrigate some land using variable rate water. I own a independent multi outlet agricultural retail company called "the Rack". We retail , and deliver farm fuel, fertilizers, and crop protection technology, we custom apply fertilizer and crop protection, we have a chain of unmanned fuel stations . We consult farm producers on plant nutrition and food production. We implement all the newest technology on farms using soil testing, plant tissue testing, gps, satellite imagery, drones, and anything bright and shinny that might advance food production. I have a degree in Animal Nutrition and that's where i get my infatuation when it comes to plant nutrition. I lead a research division, Ultimate Yield Management Institute that performs replicated published scientific research about crop production sustainable systems. The institute certifies crop advisors to follow a process. I have registered 2 patents one of which won 2009 agricultural patent of the year, "Racketeer" is the brand of product utilized in this patent. It has now expanded into most of western Canada and there is a large potential USA and Australian market . The other patent is currently expunged as i have not YET refined the algorithm. I am passionate about agricultural food production technology and efficiencies. i have consulted and help implement a large crop project in Kyrgyzstan . I want to learn about everything ! I believe small town roots are a stabilizing force in todays world economic and political climate ! my Kolbe is 3-1-10-4 .

Dr. Don Wood

Inspired Performance Institute

- I've GOT I focus on finding underserved niche markets and I patiently pursue these opportunities.
- That GIVES Our company delivers a cutting-edge neuroscience approach to finding peace and increased performance.
- That GETS We deliver life changing results by eliminating the effects of disturbing and traumatic events.
- I want HELP Our goal is to reach a larger audience in an effective and profitable way.

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Don Wood, PhD developed the TIPP method after spending years researching how Atmospheric Conditions™ affect our minds and impact our lives. He went back to school later in life to get his PhD in Clinical Counseling and psychology, to learn how to heal his daughter's Crohn's Disease and his wife's autoimmune disease. "Teaching people to live with, manage and cope with daily stress doesn't fix the problem. The solution comes from understanding it's source and providing a long-term permanent solution." "Both my wife and daughter experienced childhood trauma and I saw how it affected their life, including their health. They both had developed autoimmune disorders." In his search for answers for them, Dr. Wood made the connection between trauma and their health issues. In addition, he recognized the daily stress they lived with and the only solutions provided came from medications. His experience with his family provided the determination required to develop a cutting edge neuroscience approach. A holistic solution that provides immediate and long lasting relief. The TIPP program developed by Dr. Wood has benefited individuals all over the world. "I wanted to create a solution that removed the stigma of trauma. Too many people are afraid to ask for help because of that stigma. That is why we named the program around increasing performance levels. When you eliminate the effects of disturbing or traumatic events, which I refer to as their Atmospheric Conditions™ in a person's life, their performance improves both personally and professionally." The results have been impressive. Dr. Wood has helped trauma survivors from the Boston Marathon bombing attack, the Las Vegas shooting, to highly successful executives and world class athletes perform at their best.

Marko Cheseto, a double amputee marathon runner, broke the world record TWICE after completing TIPP. Chris Nikic worked with Dr. Wood and made world news by becoming the first person with Downs Syndrome to complete an Ironman competition. The Inspired Performance Institute was built on this simple phrase, "There's nothing wrong with you, there's nothing wrong with your mind." During your lifetime some events and experiences have created some glitches and error messages for your mind, and all you need is a reboot.

Dr. Wood has written two books about his research including the science about how our minds work and why we experience our own unique perspective of the world. Both books, You Must Be Out of Your Mind and Emotional Concussions, are focused on how we can all make the desired changes by allowing our mind to reset and reboot. He has spoken on these topics domestically and internationally. He has been a guest contributor on Joe Polish's "I Love Marketing," he has been a speaker for Spartan Leadership, James Wedmore's Innercircle, Shanda Sumpter's MasterMind among many other speaking engagements. A podcast guest favorite, Dr. Wood has appeared on over 100 podcasts and many times has been the top 20% listened to show; among some of the great shows, he's appeared on Dave Aspery's Bulletproof Radio, SpartanUp Podcast, Unbeatable Mind, Ben Greenfield Fitness, ATP Science Podcast among many more.

BIOGRAPHY

I am a functional medicine certified dentist who is passionate about reversing dental and chronic systemic diseases. Being trained in functional medicine and equipped with advanced dental training, me and my team are able to support our patients unique health needs with a compassionate and thorough approach. We shift the traditional disease-centered focus of dental practices to a more patient-centered approach, addressing problems as close to their root cause as possible, not merely treating symptoms and managing diseases. We spend time with our patients, listening to their stories and looking at the interactions among genetic, physiological, environmental, and lifestyle factors that can influence long-term dental health and complex, chronic disease. We integrate the latest emerging research of the best medical and dental practices of conventional western medical with what is sometimes considered “alternative” or “integrative” medicine, creating a focus on wellness. We thoughtfully recommend botanical medicines, pharmaceutical drugs, supplements, movement, food, detoxification programs, therapeutic bodywork, energy healing and various stress-management approaches to help ignite the healing process. We bring the patient into the discovery process and tailor treatment to address the individual’s unique needs for better health and vitality. We value building authentic relationships with our patients that are grounded in deep listening, respect, honesty, options and education.

Poplar.Money

- I've GOT A technology platform that inflation-proofs idle cash by automating into high yield treasuries
- That GIVES CEO's and CFO's the freedom to generate net new revenue on their hard earned cash.
- That GETS Customers "free money" on an asset they already own, easily and effortlessly
- I want HELP Identifying a few municipality executives, fractional CFO's and senior level executives at a few regional banks as we refine product market fit.

BIOGRAPHY

I am an entrepreneur, business developer and strategist, and my life has been a whirlwind professional journey, starting when I was 11 years old. As the child of a single mom, I had a natural draw to entrepreneurship to help our family. Between juggling babysitting work, door to door sales and helping everyone I met who needed a hand, it would be fair to say that I was blessed with learning the value of supportive relationships very early on in life – the more you give the more fun you will have.

As a tech exec, board member, and professional speaker, I am constantly encouraging people to get more out of themselves and reach their full potential. Some of my friends call me a CEO whisperer due to the number of business leaders who call me for ideas, advice both personal and professional. All the while I have closed a few hundred million dollars in fundraising, products and services to some of the world's largest enterprises. I am also privileged to serve as a board member for some ground breaking tech companies like Software Automation (sewing machine robots- yes robots really are going to take over some of the world), Optios.com (helping the world's most elite performers unlock their brain's exponential capacity using proprietary neuroscience technology), Steady(income robo advisor for America's working class to help them reach their income potential) and advertising school Miami Ad School. I am proud of the collaborative work with brilliant people that I am privileged to spend time with every day as we harness our positive human energy towards making a positive impact on the world.

Previously, I served as the co-founder and CEO of IdeaString, delivering the world's first social innovation and collaboration SaaS platform to reduce costs and optimize business processes. Our customers included GE, Coca-Cola, and The Home Depot, and we sold the platform to GE in 2015. I was a co-founder and Publisher of PINK Magazine, launching in June 2005 to wide acclaim and 1 million professional women readers. An editorial from Forbes described it as "Fortune meets Oprah." Every year our sold-out events across the nation featured America's most influential women in business on panels which I moderated. I sold PINK in 2010. I was also a co-founder of ZapMedia and InfoGraphix, two Atlanta-based tech companies that transformed the digital large-format on-demand printing industry by delivering a high volume RIPs and garnered 80% market share globally.

I am incredibly blessed to be married for 22 years to a brilliant, supportive, loving Dutch guy I met in a hotel lobby in Barcelona. We are DINKS - double income - no kids -- but we do have a fur baby named Apple who is a 21 pound Labradoodle. Remco (the dutchman) and I are learning to invest in start ups especially where we can add value. He is a terrific operator and always has new ways of tackling problem solving and has very strong people management capabilities. He just finished helping to turn around a boutique brand brewery from certain bankruptcy to multi-year profitability and fast growth.

I have been in EO for 12 years and on the board for 4 in Atlanta, GA (EOnetwork.org).

Lior Weinstein are in the midst of launching our new company so we joined Genius Network and Lior, having already been in Strategic Coach for a year suggested I join too. So I am a member of Strategic Coach since 2021.

Dr. Greg Eckel

Energy4Life Centers

- I've GOT a bioenergetic regenerative longevity center.
- That GIVES our clients more energy, peace of mind, and age reversal.
- That GETS vital, refreshed, thriving happy patients!
- I want HELP structuring a marketing and sales force for franchising this model.

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Greg Eckel's journey into Naturopathic and Chinese Medicine began in the mid-90s when he noticed the overmedication of children while teaching preschool. In 2001, he co-founded Nature Cures Clinic in Portland, Oregon, and later founded Energy4Life Centers, a wellness and recharging center in Park City, Utah. His unique combination of Naturopathic and Chinese Medicine provides an array of tools to treat acute and chronic illness, emphasizing prevention and wellness principles.

Dr. Eckel's personal experience with his wife's Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease led him on a deep dive into regenerative medicine. Through this, he developed a brain regenerative program and a nasal spray that specifically targets neuroinflammation in the brain. He utilizes sound and laser technology, regenerative medicine, mind-body techniques, and other procedures to correct the body's control systems and protect the body's energy. He believes the future of medicine lies in frequency, and he's leading the way in bringing bioenergetics mainstream.

Dr. Eckel has been featured on major networks like ABC, NBC, and FOX, and has reached over 150,000 people with his online brain regeneration and bioenergetics summits. He's also published a book, "Shake It Off: An Integrative Approach to Parkinson's Solutions," and served as the President of the Board of Naturopathic Medical Examiners.

His approach includes detecting the body's energy and systems, such as energy fields, brain scans, blood, mind-body, nutrition, and genetics. He then corrects the body's control systems using bio-information, brain frequency, ketamine-aided hypnotherapy, electro-acupuncture, exosomes, and stem cells. Finally, he protects the body's energy using light and magnetic devices, IVs, ozone, and hyperbarics.

Greg Lake

The Lake Companies, Inc.

- That GETS game changing business results, while harvesting significant value from our clients' people, inventory, machinery and facilities, without investing another dime in any one of them.
- I want HELP taking my business to new heights. (Oct 2020)

BIOGRAPHY

My name is Greg Lake and my organization, The Lake Companies, provides technology solutions to manufacturers that enable them to run their businesses faster, more efficiently and more profitably. Our software solutions scale incredibly, from small private manufacturing companies to multi-billion dollar global organizations and automate everything from the top floor to the shop floor. Our success is built on the simple strategy of creating “WhiteSpace” in our clients’ resources (staff, inventory, machinery, and facilities). WhiteSpace creates room for rapid revenue growth while lowering costs and growing profits exponentially. I started The Lake Companies in 1983 after falling in love with industrial manufacturing and technology. On a personal side, I love my life, my wife, my family, my friends and my cabin in the north woods of Wisconsin, where I break away from the software business to play with my “toys”, including dozers, excavators, dump truck, tractors and so much more. When not moving dirt in my sandbox of life, my wife and I enjoy hauling our Harley and souped-up Jeep around the country behind our Motorhome. I’m married with a son (and daughter-in-law), daughter and two amazing grandchildren.

BIOGRAPHY

Professionally, I have 7+ years of marketing experience in the B2B and B2C space with a focus on content creation, marketing operations, full-funnel strategy, and data analytics. Marketing is truly my passion, and I couldn't imagine doing anything else with my career.

Currently, I head up all of the marketing efforts at Y Scouts, which is the first-ever purpose-based leadership search firm.

Although I do not own my own business, I have always had an entrepreneurial mindset, and I take a lot of pride in treating each of my marketing roles as if I were running my own company. I am constantly learning, growing, and developing my skillsets, and I am lucky and fortunate to be attending this event with the CEO of our company (Max Hansen).

From a personal standpoint, I live with my wife and two dogs in sunny Colorado. I'm a rare native of the state, and I love getting outdoors as much as possible with my friends and family. Whether it's golfing, snowboarding, yard games, or my newfound love of pickleball, I'm always outside and staying busy.

BIOGRAPHY

I am a 40-year-old mother of three children (20 years, 11 years and 5 years) and wife to the most amazing man.

Based in the Peak District in the thick of the English countryside, I own an award-winning book publishing company. As one would expect, I am obsessed with all things business and books (reading, writing and publishing), having spent 18 years in the industry and now having run my publishing company for the past 10 years (a dream I had as a 6-year-old little girl).

I am also a lover of all things autumn and nature,

Heidi Distant

BIOGRAPHY

Heidi has been with Vanderbilt Financial Group since 2001 and has held the role of VFG’s CEO for the past four years. Prior to this position, she served seven years as Chief of Staff supporting the firm’s daily operations. Heidi has worked within every department of the back office, often developing that department from scratch in the early days of the firm. She was a part of the original management team that grew the firm from a small Office of Supervisory Jurisdiction (OSJ), to a respected Investment Firm focused on Purpose, Passion and Partnership with over 222 Financial Advisors spread across 32 states within the US.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Heidi spent 15 years at Citicorp Retail Services as a Relationship Manager in their Private Label Credit Card Division. Her experience functioning as an interface between the Operations Department and luxury retailers exposed her to exceptional customer service tactics in the Financial Services industry, which has carried over into establishing the high-level of customer service and family office feel that Vanderbilt Financial Group has become known for.

Along with her serial entrepreneur husband, Steve and the organization’s impactful team, Vanderbilt’s commitment to changing the world begins at home in their office, Long Island’s first LEED Platinum building, located in Woodbury, New York. They are dedicated volunteers, helping the community at large with organizations such as The INN, feeding Long Island’s homeless and hungry and Heroes Against Heroin/John Brower Jr Foundation spreading opioid epidemic awareness.

Heidi’s KOLBE A™ INDEX is 6743, which measures the instinctive ways you take action when you strive. Her Strengths are Connectedness, Responsibility, Belief, Empathy and Developer.

BIOGRAPHY

Currently, a 42yo board-certified anesthesiologist living in Gilbert, AZ and married to my amAZing wife Doreen and father of 4yo son Jakobé. But let's tell ya how I got here. I was born and raised in Connecticut. Couldn't stand the cold weather and left immediately after graduating from Avon High School in 1999. I went to Lakeland, Florida and got a B.S. degree from Florida Southern College majoring in Marketing Management with minors in Sociology and Communications. I played college baseball and had no clue what I wanted to do with my life until October 2002, when the following two life changing events occurred TO me, but now I realize they happened FOR me. My dad, at 47yo, drowned and then two weeks later my appendix ruptured and I was in the hospital for a week and almost died. On 10/27/2002 as I was watching Game 7 of the World Series (Angels vs Giants) that night I had an epiphany. I decided I wanted to become a doctor. I thought I was hallucinating but when I woke up the next morning I still wanted to become a doctor. It took me 5 years and 3 attempts to get into medical school but I wasn't taking no for an answer. In the interim, I worked as an EMT and pharmacy technician, putting myself in emergency situations and learning the vast array of medications that I would one day need to be familiar with.

From 2007-2011, I went to medical school at Midwestern University in Glendale, AZ and then completed my residency in anesthesiology at Michigan State University in 2015. Once again, I hate the cold so I left Michigan and moved back to Arizona. I worked as a hospital based anesthesiologist at Banner Baywood in Mesa from 2015-2019. In 2020, amidst the COVID pandemic, I made a career change, out of necessity, and co-founded Advanced Wellness and Pain. Our mission is to provide compassionate care and support by leveraging psychedelic medicine as a catalyst to create positive life-changing experiences. In short, I have found my ikigai.

I have joined Genius Network because it seems synchronistically right for my life right now. Ironically, I always say your Network determines your Net Worth. I have been saying this for years, it's even on my IG bio. The first time I ever heard Joe Polish speak he said this line. He is the only other human being I have ever heard say this. I know by being a part of Genius Network that I will be able to take all facets of my life and business to the next level. With great knowledge comes great responsibility, time to level up and fulfill my destiny. Helping to raise the collective consciousness and empowering my fellow human beings. As Joe says, "Life Gives to the Giver".

James Shipman

Retired

- I've GOT a beautiful wife and daughter. I am blessed with wonderful neighbors. And many best friends, some I have known since elementary school and college. I am the richest guy you will ever know in that aspect and so grateful.
- That GIVES I am retired. What I wish is to support the Genius Network's mission. I wish to learn more about the Recovery Network, as well, since my immediate family has had it challenges too. And to give to and involve my daughter and give and support her in a life she can't even dream of yet.
- That GETS I am retired, so my "clients"/friends and family and acquaintances get to know the possibilities of organizations like this. And loyalty. And trust. And someone who will listen. I think the TV show "New Amsterdam" stole my motto: How can I help? The Law of Reciprocation works. But works best when you don't expect any.
- I want HELP #1 is my daughter. Smart, beautiful and in need of a new mission in life. #2 is a desire to streamline my own life and get rid of stuff (I somehow have become a packrat!) #3 is to continue to make a difference and leave the world a better place. I enjoy creating pattern interrupts and showing folks new possibilities. I don't know where I'd be without personal development and people like Werner Erhard and Anthony Robbins.

BIOGRAPHY

My name is James H Shipman. I was named after James P Cleator. That's right, THAT Cleator. My Mother was Ellizabeth Cleator and grew up in Cleator, AZ. Boarded & attended Prescott High School. And graduated the University of Arizona at age 19. And you read that correctly too.

I know this is supposed to be about me. But the above paragraph is why I am attending and assisting Joe Polish and Jason Campbell and their partners. As Burgandy Morgan said to me, "You're the original Cleator Crew!"

I will be 75 in June. I am retired, but my love and passion have been Cleator, AZ since 1996, when my Uncle, Tom, passed away. Actually, my entire life. I've been going there since I was a baby. I could not have hand picked better new owners of Cleator, AZ. I have yet to read, hear or watch anything I disagree with and am just thrilled that Cleator will be part of a whole new legacy. "What's your Cleator?" is a real honor to have my family legacy a part of something so great.

I graduated from Stanford University, specializing in neuroscience. Over nearly 14 years, I've applied behavioral science research and methodologies to tackle challenging issues in technology. I'm also the mind behind Behavioral Strategy, an interdisciplinary approach aimed at integrating behavioral research into the strategic planning of new products and initiatives, with the ultimate goal of achieving Behavior Market Fit.

My career has been marked by several key accomplishments. I began with an academic focus on neuroscience at Stanford, and then became one of the original mentors for 500 Startups, where I specialized in applied behavioral science and UX design. I founded the first Fortune 100 behavioral science unit at Walmart and later served as the Global Head of Behavioral Sciences there. My research experience includes time at the Stanford Persuasive Technology Lab, now known as the Stanford Behavior Design Lab. I co-founded Kite.io, which was acquired in 2014 by Alibaba's search partner, Quixey. I also founded Dopamine, the first technology-focused applied behavioral science firm, and Persona, an assistant company that employs behavioral assessments to hire top-tier remote assistants.

Currently, I'm focused on expanding Persona: The Assistant Company. We source the most skilled assistants globally and pair them with executives and founders in rapidly growing businesses. Although we offer a range of assistant types, from accounting to marketing to operations, we are presently the leading provider of Executive Assistants to technology startups.

Jenn Simmons

Real Health MD

- I've GOT two missions as the doctor with the answer to breast cancer. I help women both heal from and prevent breast cancer, and I am changing the way we screen for breast cancer. I have a virtual medical practice called Real Health MD. I help women anywhere along the breast cancer spectrum to reclaim their health, and many of them learn what it is to be healthy for the first time in their lives. I give them back the control their diagnosis took away. I work with women one on one, in groups, and provide invaluable information through my podcast, KEEPING ABREAST with Dr. Jenn and my book, The Smart Person's Guide to Breast Cancer. In addition, my imaging company, PERFECTION IMAGING, utilizes revolutionary technology that is a safe, fast, comfortable, and affordable way to screen for breast cancer.
- That GIVES women an alternative to the harmful ways that breast cancer is currently screened for and treated in conventional medicine.
- That GETS women the opportunity to put their breast cancer diagnosis behind them and look to the future with confidence and a new found lease on life. Through my company, they have the opportunity to safely screen for breast cancer without having to experience the trauma of a mammogram, subject themselves to radiation, or heavy metals.
- I want HELP I want to get as many PERFECTION IMAGING centers open as quickly as I can. Please, if you want this in your town, speak to me so that we can get it going. Together, we can change the world.

BIOGRAPHY

Has anyone here been affected by or known someone affected by breast cancer? It's a pervasive presence in our lives, touching countless individuals and families across the globe. For me, breast cancer is not just a distant concern; it has been an ever-present force shaping the trajectory of my life and the driving force behind my purpose.

At the age of 16, I experienced a profound loss that would set the course for my life's work. My first cousin, a highly acclaimed singer-songwriter named Linda Creed, succumbed to metastatic breast cancer. Her battle, filled with both moments of resilience and vulnerability, left an indelible mark on my soul. Her life, and ultimately her untimely death, became the catalyst for my journey into the world of medicine.

Driven by a deep-seated commitment to making a difference in the world of breast cancer, I became Philadelphia's first fellowship-trained breast surgeon. What started off as a very conventional medical practice morphed significantly when I became a patient. It was through the eyes of a patient that I saw how broken our medical system is. In the pursuit of healing and understanding, I encountered and then adopted a transformative approach to medicine — functional medicine. It was a revelation, a bell that once rung, could not be silenced. Through this critical lens, I began to scrutinize the conventional methods we employ in screening for breast cancer.

The realization hit me hard — the very tests we use to detect breast cancer are contributing to its occurrence. It was an unacceptable paradox that I could not ignore. This revelation fueled my determination to change the narrative surrounding breast cancer screening. I made it my life's mission to revolutionize the approach, to shift from a system that inadvertently causes harm to one that preserves health and well-being.

Currently, I am on the brink of a groundbreaking venture. I am in the process of establishing imaging centers across the nation and beyond, armed with revolutionary technology that promises to redefine breast cancer screening. This technology is not just fast and safe; it's comfortable, affordable, radiation-free, and boasts an astounding 40 times the resolution of MRI. It has received the stamp of approval from the FDA, signaling a new era in breast health and breast cancer screening.

I look forward to getting to know you, this amazing group of entrepreneurs. I look forward to the opportunity to share more about this transformative journey. Breast cancer touched my life, but through innovation, determination, and a commitment to change, I aim to touch the lives of countless others. Together, we can rewrite the narrative, creating a future where breast health is safeguarded without compromise.

I eagerly anticipate the opportunity to meet each one of you and share the exciting developments on this journey to redefine the landscape of breast cancer screening. Thank you for the opportunity to introduce myself and my mission to this esteemed group.

Joel Weldon's Ultimate Speaking System

- I've GOT an amazing Dad, Joel Weldon, who is a legend in the speaking industry and has coached over 200 GN members.
- That GIVES you a way to make your presentations easy and clear whether you are talking to 1 person or 1,000.
- That GETS you the results you want and deserve whether it's a 10 min. talk or a 2 hour talk
- I want HELP getting Joel on virtual trainings, podcasts and mastermind events.

BIOGRAPHY

Little bit about me...I'm short! Like 3 inches from requiring a booster seat short! So short, I don't even know who's bald. The only thing I see when I look up is nose hair. And that's just the women. I'm Joel Weldon's sidekick, business partner, and probably his biggest fan! Joel and I are partners in our coaching business and speaking careers. I lead our group coaching sessions where we focus on specific speaking challenges and topics and invite our members to attend and interact .

When I'm not having fun with my Dad, I've got my own monkey business known as the "IMPOSTER SPEAKER," bringing unexpected laughter and fun to meetings, trainings & events by pretending to be a fake industry expert or a FAKE NEW HIRE.

Eventually it gets so over-the-top, I let the audience know they've been punked. Once the laughter has subsided, the real message is shared...having fun and not taking yourself so seriously actually makes you more productive. Things could always be worse. You could be working with a Bozo like me! Companies who focus on positive company culture, workplace wellness and engaging their employees absolutely love this. Jesse Keyser

Keyser Enterprises

- That GIVES I am a Franchisee of various brands and industry
- That GETS We are experts in franchising and operations
- I want HELP I am working on my own burrito concept that will be franchised

BIOGRAPHY

A seasoned entrepreneur and business leader, Jesse Keyser's journey began at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, where he completed his education. His early professional years were spent at a technology start-up, imbibing and contributing to the dynamics of a budding business environment.

In 2005, Jesse, in collaboration with his brother, made his foray into the world of franchising, opening the doors to their first Little Caesars Pizza location. This venture proved to be a stepping stone to broader business horizons, and they went on to establish five such outlets, all of which achieved success and were eventually sold.

Venturing further into the franchising domain, Jesse owned a Valpak franchise from 2008 to 2011. His entrepreneurial spirit didn't stop there. In 2010, he and his brother expanded their business portfolio by establishing their first Sport Clips Haircuts location. Today, they are proud owners of 27 Sport Clips locations, spread across five states, with aspirations for further expansions.

2014 marked another significant addition to their business endeavors when they acquired Oxi Fresh Carpet Cleaning of St. Louis. Operating in six territories, this venture solidified Jesse's reputation in the franchise world.

In his most recent enterprise, Jesse and his partners are steering the expansion of Ideal Image locations across the United States, marking another successful chapter in his business story.

Beyond his business operations, Jesse is committed to contributing to the franchising community. He has served on the advisory councils for notable brands like Little Caesars, Oxi Fresh Carpet Cleaning, and Sport Clips. His leadership and business acumen have not gone unnoticed. He's been recognized as the "Owner of the Year" both by Sport Clips and Oxi Fresh Carpet Cleaning, a testament to his dedication and expertise.

A strong believer in connecting and sharing knowledge, Jesse is active on various social media platforms. He's a sought-after voice in the spheres of entrepreneurship, franchising, and leadership.

Jill Butler

Joel Weldon's Ultimate Speaking System

- I've GOT an amazing father, Joel Weldon, and sister, Jenny Locklin, who coach speaking skills like no one else can.
- That GIVES unique, simple ways to improve your speaking and communicating to any type of audience on any topic, product or through any venue (podcast, live, webinar).
- That GETS speaking with confidence and clarity so your message isn't misunderstood and your audience takes action.
- I want HELP finding relevant avenues, such as podcasts, to get Joel in front of qualified audiences.

BIOGRAPHY

Jill is one of two people in the whole world who can be called the daughter of Hall of Fame Speaker, Joel Weldon. At just 10 years old, she started working for Joel by stuffing and stamping envelopes for the follow up mailings sent (pre-email!) after his in-person speaking at seminars. Today, Jill is the CFO of Joel's company, after her mother held the position for forty years, and makes sure the bills are paid so Joel and Jenny can fire up the Zoom cameras for you.

Before taking over Joel's business, Jill was a high-end closet designer for 15 years, specializing in the custom homes of professional athletes and business tycoons in the Valley. She left that career to raise 3 awesome, independent, and hard-working humans. One is a Marine Corps Lieutenant stationed at MCAS Cherry Point, NC. One is in St. Louis working in real estate syndication, and one works remote for Hyland Software based in Ohio, but she lives in Missoula, MT with her husband and precious new daughter.

BIOGRAPHY

Joel Weldon is a lot more than a Hall of Fame professional speaker and speaking skills coach. He's the "go-to person" in both those areas, plus a third unique category. For the past 9 years, over 200 of your fellow Genius Network members have hired Joel as their personal speaking skills coach and used his Ultimate Speaking System to add impact, clarity, and creativity to their spoken word messages. For over 49 years, Joel has also been the go-to speaker for the over 3,000 groups that have paid him to speak at their events worldwide. If you ever feel unsure you have the right message for the audience you want to reach, Joel is your "go-to guy." The third area of Joel's expertise is How to Be Happy & Healthy. At age 82, Joel is our oldest member and certainly one of our most energetic and enthusiastic members. His health and fitness can be seen in the water. Joel and his late wife Judy, were married for 59 years, she recently passed away. They have two grown daughters and 4 grandchildren. Both of Joel's daughters work in the business with Joel. He spends about 90 days a year on his boats. Joel is still a slalom water skier, as well as a wake surfer and a master sky skier (hydrofoil). For the last 34 years, he has spent about 60 days every summer on Lake Powell on their houseboat. Joel's philosophy is what Earl Nightingale, Joel's Mentor and the Dean of Personal Development, taught him in 1967: "You become what you think about." So just think happy, healthy and helpful thoughts! Add to that, Joel's own tagline: "Success Comes in Cans, Not in Cannots!" Yes, it sounds simple, because it really is! Your life is your choice!

John Dalton

Industrial Device Investments LLC

- I've GOT An investment fund called Industrial Device Investments that invests and supports small industrial product companies.
- That GIVES Well, we don't give anything. We invest in people and companies, investing patient capital to build great companies and great communities through our foundation model.
- That GETS Long-term patient capital and real experience born of my many seven figure mistakes
- I want HELP Finding those small industrial product companies, and people who want to partner in these companies

BIOGRAPHY

After three decades of industrial company experience, John Dalton created Industrial Device Investments in 2017, to broaden investment in and acquisition of industrial products companies. IDI now has four companies. Please visit us at www.idinvest.net.

Dalton serves as CEO and chair of Perceptics. Perceptics was acquired from Northrop Grumman in 2006, and formed the cornerstone of IDI. Dalton was active in daily operations for 11 years, but now focuses on capital allocation and strategy. In 2019, Perceptics had a crisis that reshaped the company, starting with cyber-attack and causing cancellation of contracts by Perceptics largest customer. We continue to forge the company for the future.

Dalton also serves as chairman of Materials Research Furnaces, LLC, an IDI investment in 2018. MRF builds high temperature furnaces for ceramics, electronic component and other part production. Dalton has focused on building the team and strengthening customer relationships and market focus, and IDI has continued to invest strongly.

In 2019, IDI invested in Proton Power, Inc., and Dalton joined the board. PPI manufactures environmental equipment and specialized materials including graphene.

Lastly, Dalton serves as chair with Tread Corporation, a global leader in mining equipment manufacturing. Dalton & IDI were recruited by Tread's lender to help reinvigorate the brand, after previous upper management and ownership had been dysfunctional.

Previously, Mr. Dalton was with SouthPointe Ventures, a private equity fund in Atlanta, Georgia, acting as the fund's operating partner. Prior to SouthPointe, he has seventeen years of operating experience, starting with Fortune 500 General Electric and Black & Decker, and including senior leadership positions with smaller organizations focused on unique technologies within basic industries. He holds a BSME from Cornell and an MBA degree from UNC.

Dalton is involved with a variety of community stewardship causes. In Atlanta, he was volunteer at MUST homeless ministries, and later served on the board and had active involvement with Crossroads Community Ministries for homeless. Dalton founded the Perceptics Foundation in Knoxville in 2008, which supports employees and families, where they give time and money to nonprofits, with a three times (3X) match. The Foundation, a Genius 10 Minute Talk topic, now serves all IDI companies, has had a significant impact in Tennessee, New Hampshire and now Virginia, and recently passed $1.5 million in matching donations. Dalton and his wife Sandy live in Knoxville, and their five children are scattered about: Mark (26), Chris (24), Ari (19), Connor (17) and Krystin (11). They are active attendees at Two Rivers Church.

John Raymonds

Raymonds Capital, LLC

- GN Member since 2015
- I've GOT (GN Member since 2015), a family office created from the successful turn around, build out, and sale of a manufacturing business.
- That GIVES an opportunity to diversify and invest a family's portfolio in a full-out ELF manner.
- That GETS access to an amazing group of portfolio companies and their entrepreneurs.
- I want HELP finding the best place in Florida to eventually build a home and move residence to from New Jersey.

I love where I went to college. I have a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from MIT as part of the graduating class of 1986. Does anyone remember Heathkit? That was my passion in High School and led to me getting that degree. While I may not have directly utilized my degree in my professional life, I consider myself fortunate to have been accepted into a prestigious institution that prioritized problem-solving skills over mere memorization for exams. Yes, I still open things today just to see how they are put together even though they claim there are "no user serviceable parts inside." I applied that problem-solving skill to turning around a family plastic packaging business after my father passed away in 1993. The business was headed for certain bankruptcy at the time. I had my own way of describing its problems, but in general I think Clate Mask covered it best. (Look up his talk at the Genius Network offices entitled "From $10 Million to $100 Million: Three Big Lessons for Growing and Scaling Your Business").

I knew I was not an operator, so I needed to hire one. I found someone to be COO that the business could grow into. He came off a non-compete from a $300M business with 13 facilities. When he joined us we were a troubled $45M business with only 4 locations. When I sold the business in 2008 for $500M (13 years later) we had become a $300M business with 15 locations. Yet, the first-best move I made at the time was hiring a change agent for the short time in between when I fired the previous COO and hired the new COO. It prepared the foundation for the success that would be created for those 13 years ahead. The second-best move was a change in mindset from being an "owner" to an "investor". Though those words did not change anything in the "real world" they allowed me to see the business in a different light. The third-best move I made was partnering with the right Private Equity firm in 2004. I was able to take some money off the table, beginning a slow shift to helping other entrepreneurs change the world. In those short four years until the sale of the business I was able to 10x the cash I kept in the business.

In 2015, I exited the plastic packaging industry entirely after selling a business in The Netherlands for 42M €. That business started with a small group of people in 1995 and unknowingly began a theme of partnering with awesome people trying to build great things. One of the most exciting rides was with Bron Media Corporation, which included Bron Studios, Bron Animation, Bron Digital, and others. From its humble start in 2011, it saw records set with the largest sale at a film festival (for BIRTH OF A NATION sold to Fox Searchlight), the largest television deal (for the untitled Aniston-Witherspoon drama sold to Apple), and highest grossing R-rated film JOKER taking in $1,074,251,311. To date, Bron has 32 Academy Award Nominations and 6 wins, including BOMBSHELL, ROMAN J. ISRAEL ESQ., FENCES, and JOKER. Then COVID-19 emerged, abruptly halting production and closing theaters. Then a market arose no longer valuing growth over profitability. Then a writer's strike happened.

All of this led to filing for creditor protection in 2023. The good news is that I see a tax holiday coming soon for myself! More seriously, the good news is that lack of debt and massive diversification still holds a world of opportunity for the future. Today I am invested in over 200 startups across many different sectors including Blockchain / Crypto, Aerospace, VR / AR, SaaS, Finance, Education, Real Estate, AI/ML, Payments, Hardware, Cleantech, Healthcare, Consumer, Productivity, and more. Some are direct and very focused investments, others are through SPVs leveraging other people as mentors and connectors. This does not include the Fund level investments I have made. In this area, I am grateful to have very long term relationships with Lux Capital, Whitebox Advisors, Elliott Associates, and others. I have been on the Innovation Board for the XPRIZE Foundation. Seeded money for what turned into the Global Learning XPRIZE. I was a member of TEC 100 which turned into Vistage. I am now an emeritus member of TIGER 21. I am currently a member of the 25k Group at Genius. I was SCUBA certified in 1978. Love roller coasters. Have a gun collection for a home range. I still maintain my Tripoi membership and am certified to fly Level 2 High Powered Rockets.

In summary, if family business, succession, private equity, selling your business, managing a "family office", finding a new life past your "career", investing, exploring new technologies, or anything else above, is anything of interest to you, reach out. Let's talk. I am known for being the one person in the room that is going to say something different from everyone else. If I can make your path shorter or give you a different perspective, that would be amazing. I am NOT looking for deal flow or any other longer term time commitments, so please be respectful of that fact.

BIOGRAPHY

Joshua B. Lee, also known as the "Dopamine Dealer of LinkedIn", is a seasoned entrepreneur, author, and a crusader for authentic human connection in the digital arena. With 16 lucrative businesses and the book, 'Balance is Bullsh*t' under his belt, Joshua's journey is shared with his blended family, including the incomparable Rachel B. Lee and their cherished children, Jayden, Skylar, and Ava B. Lee.

In the early 2000s, Joshua propelled clients like MySpace, Yahoo, and Google to stellar heights, managing nearly a billion in ad spends to achieve 35 trillion online impressions. Yet, as digital spaces grew more automated, the essence of human touch dwindled.

Seeking authenticity, Joshua founded Standout Authority in 2014, aiming to humanize personal brands. Through it, he aids high-powered entrepreneurs and professionals in crafting remarkable content and seizing massive opportunities on LinkedIn, the professional realm's epitome. Standout Authority's mission transcends business metrics, aspiring to help individuals stand out, inspire hearts, and evoke positive global change, all while preserving the soul's essence.

Joshua's efforts have led to collaborations with luminaries like Dan Sullivan and John C. Maxwell, along with enterprises like Oracle, Gartner, and ADT. Joshua B. Lee remains a digital realm beacon, showcasing the blend of business success with genuine human connection.

- I want HELP finding marketing interested business groups to speak to about how to get results with direct mail.

BIOGRAPHY

Dinosaur resurrection specialist! Justin Miller is the President & Founder of Profit 911 Consulting, a DIRECT MAIL marketing agency.

Every day his team helps business owners to do something that has been declared dead! Extinct! Inefficient! Expensive! Some even call it a dinosaur!--- Which as you know, dinosaurs disappeared over 66 million years ago. Or did they?

Steven Spielberg brought dinosaurs back to life in his 1993 super hit movie Jurassic Park. That one movie led him to generate over $3.7 billion in sales from the four movies, the theme park and product sales. What if you could use "dinosaurs" to help you grow your business?

That's exactly what Justin Miller specializes in. He teaches and implements a powerful three part direct mail formula for your business, to help you secure your client retention, boost referrals and get even more clients.

By using a simple three-part formula you can cause a big bang in your business. Check out Justin's 10 minute talk, "ALL ABOUT DINOSAURS: 3 Ways to Create a Big Bang in Your Business with Direct Mail" and make sure to say hi and swap your dinosaur marketing stories.

If you share your mailing address with Justin, he will even have a cool gift from the dinosaur world shipped to you.

- That GIVES retirees an alternative path to traditional financial advisors that is much less expensive while at the same time providing way more support to help them navigate retirement's biggest risks safely.
- That GETS them peace of mind knowing that regardless of what the market does, they won't run out of money.
- I want HELP learning ways to be a better leader, bigger thinker and practical advice on scaling.

BIOGRAPHY

I'm most proud of being a dad of 3 wonderful kids under 10. That's my ultimate passion project.

I started Adept Marketing in 2008. Adept is a performance (digital focused) agency working with many major brands. I sold it in 2021 to Smith, an enterprise e-commerce implementation company.

In the early days of APIs, I founded a software company called BringShare that aggregated marketing performance data from multiple ad platforms and pulled them into pre-built reporting templates for agencies. Turns out, Google was better at this than we were with the launch of Google Data Studio. Ouch.

I then purchased an ownership position in a financial services firm that had done nothing to market and scale. In the last 3 years, we've taken it to every major metro area in Ohio with plans to expand into 2 additional states in 2024.

- That GIVES entrepreneurs a clear path to grow their business without growing apart from their spouse
- That GETS Couples deeply connected through individual and shared growth, mutual respect, and presence.
- I want HELP continuing to scale my business.

BIOGRAPHY

I am a speaker, author, and coach for entrepreneurs and their spouses. I work closely with EO, YPO, EOS, and other entrepreneurial networks to support their members and spouses/partners. My work is derived from observing so many entrepreneurs struggle in their personal relationship, then going through my own divorce in 2012. I have a heart for both the entrepreneur and the partner because I've experienced being the more ambitious, driven partner in my marriage. Then, in my subsequent relationship, karma caught up quickly when I found myself completely lost in the gravitational pull of my partner and his business. My second book, Alpha and Omega will be released later this year.

I live in Chicago with my two sons, Will (15) and Luke (13). We've recently blended our family with my partner Joe and his daughter Faith (19). After 10 years of being a single mom, it's insanely righteous be in partnership again. I love our funky little family so much! My sons' busy sports schedule forces me to keep my business ELF. This leaves us plenty of time to be at their games and work on their dream of opening a fishing charter boat when they graduate high school- they're going straight for The Retirement Trick! ?

And, Qlarity Breast Imaging that seeks to ultimately replace mammograms by bringing a novel, high definition breast imaging technology into communities across the country.
- That GIVES THCFM teaches people how to create healthy longevity and reverse chronic diseases. This should be how true healthcare is delivered. Our start-up, Qlarity Breast Imaging seeks to ultimately replace mammograms by bringing a novel, comfortable, high definition breast imaging technology into communities across the country. A better process with better answers.
- That GETS THCFM has accomplished a record of zero heart attacks among its member patients for over a decade. We have helped hundreds of people recover from debilitating "mystery illnesses" for which conventional medicine has had no answers. We successfully reverse dementia and early Alzheimer's disease and are currently involved in what we hope will be a landmark research trial demonstrating the effectiveness of a precision medicine approach to the reversal of cognitive decline. In 30 years as a primary care physician ordering literally thousands of screening mammograms, I have witnessed the fear and pain of this process of breast cancer screening. 1 in 10 studies are abnormal and 80% of "abnormal mammograms" are false positives with nothing actually wrong. Qlarity Breast Imaging, featuring the novel QT Imaging device changes that by providing more accurate results and relief from the discomfort and fear of mammograms. I want that experience to be available to every single woman who wants it.
- I want HELP I would like help setting up the trajectory to scale both businesses and understanding what needs to be developed in order to provide franchise opportunities to bring Qlarity Breast Imaging into communities.

BIOGRAPHY

Kristine Burke, MD is a triple board-certified Functional Medicine Physician, Entrepreneur, Author, Educator, and Researcher. She is an expert in the reversal and prevention of chronic diseases such as dementia, diabetes, heart attacks and strokes. She has a special focus on mold-related illness and its connection to many conditions including CVD, chronic fatigue, and research into reversing the cognitive decline of Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia. She is the Founder and Medical Director of True Health Center for Functional Medicine in Northern California - a multi-disciplinary practice that delivers personalized primary care with a proprietary data-driven wellness plan that has successfully prevented any heart attacks from occurring among its member patients for over a decade.

In her mission to bring better healthcare to the world, her new joint venture, Qlarity Breast Imaging with Yvonne Karney, MD seeks to bring a novel, high definition breast imaging technology into communities across the country. Using an FDA designated "Breakthrough Device," we plan to replace the pain, fear, and false positives of mammograms with a comfortable process and the clarity of better answers.

Kyle Breischafft

Unite Advisors, LLC

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Breischafft has a wide-ranging and very diverse background that includes extensive entrepreneurial experiences, broad public safety experience, and military service. The two notable skills that transcend his entire career are his innate leadership capabilities and his “help first” passion. Kyle has held various leadership positions in government, non-profit, labor union, and for-profit corporate organizations.

Unite Advisors is a boutique coaching firm that is based on 100% referrals and not by accident! Unite Advisors and the Founder, Kyle Breischafft, have a reputation in the market for helping leaders and companies grow.

Kyle is a serial entrepreneur, and his clients appreciate that he speaks from real-world experience, not theory. He understands the life of an entrepreneur is made up of high highs and low lows. He has the entrepreneurial scars on his back from things going sideways to sweating making payroll. This allows him to be a more realistic and effective coach. Kyle believes in action, accountability, and results. He is a trusted advisor and becomes an integral part of the client's leadership team. He is truly invested in their success which leads to a better experience and better results. We focus on the following areas of the business:

- Strategy
- People
- Execution
- Data
- Profitability

Unite Advisors' philosophy is a best-in-class approach. This approach, coupled with Kyle's thirst for learning passion, has allowed Kyle and Unite Advisors to leverage a full complement of best-in-class Tools, Systems, Processes, and Coaches. Kyle started his coaching career as a Certified EOS Implementer and then added additional industry-leading credentials, including the following certifications:

BIOGRAPHY

LEILA PARNIAN believes the most powerful thing she can do is to make people feel things without ever saying a word. That is her art. She creates to bring light into spaces of darkness. With no formal training, Leila pushed herself to learn different styles of art from oil painting on canvas to spray painting large scale murals. "I want to inspire aspiring artists to create a full-time position for themselves in this field. I also want to inspire those who do not believe they are creative, to create!" With immigrant parents who encouraged her to study in the medical field, she pushed boundaries and followed her passion, even when she was told she would never make it. Fast forward to today and she is living her dream. Her biggest advice is to take someone saying no as a speedbump and not a stop sign. She embraces rejection.

Leila was born in Scottsdale, Arizona to architects Abdolhay and Parvaneh Parnian, received her undergraduate degree in Economics from Arizona State University in 2006 and continued with a Masters in Urban Planning from Arizona State University graduating in 2009. At the time of her graduation, due to the failed economic market, nobody was hiring in development so she went to help her family business, Parnian Furniture. She worked her way up the company ladder and now is the Owner of Parnian. Leila moved her art studio into the old spray paint booth inside Parnian, where the public can view her painting live while she is there. When she is not in the store, she is painting murals off site, she is currently working on 20 murals for Marriott Hotels. The showroom and her studio is open to the public Monday – Saturday from 10am – 6pm and Sundays from 12m – 5pm. Leila hosts TheraPour® & PartyPour® classes in her studio a couple times a month. TheraPour® & PartyPour® kits are also available for purchase. Information for classes can be found on the website and on her Instagram @leilaparnian

When Leila is not working on art, she is active at Parnian helping clients with Interior Design. She enjoys playing the piano, working out and making comedic skits for social media. Fun fact about Leila – she is a 3 time All American Racquetball Player and won collegiate nationals in 200

Marc Mani

BIOGRAPHY

A graduate of Harvard University, Dr. Marc Mani is a well-known plastic surgeon in Beverly Hills with a clientele that includes many celebrities and global business leaders. Dr. Mani is known for the Scarless Lift™, a minimally-invasive, endoscopic face and neck lift that he developed and teaches to other surgeons around the world. He devotes a significant amount of his surgical practice to reconstructing the injuries of victims of domestic violence, terrorism, and human trafficking.

Back during his Chief Residency in the second-busiest emergency room in the U.S., Dr. Mani put on a cervical collar and took a power nap. A light bulb went off and MANI Mobile Pillow™ was born. A global traveler, he needed to sleep quickly and comfortably on flights to be ready to lecture and perform surgery when he landed. He created MANI to work with the body's natural sleep drive and musculature, inducing a state of rest and relaxation while napping on the go.

SalesLoop

- I've GOT A B2B branding agency, SalesLoop and a podcast, How To Sell More
- That GIVES B2B business owners and their teams the sales message and creative assets needed for every step of the buying journey so prospects pick them over their competition.
- That GETS The professional support, fresh ideas, and assets needed to fill their pipeline, work leads more effectively and close more sales.
- I want HELP Professionalizing the speaking side of my business - packaging myself, creating more opportunities, turning the concept into a book.

BIOGRAPHY

Hey there, I'm Mark. By day, I'm the CEO and co-founder of the B2B branding agency SalesLoop, I host the How To Sell More podcast, and I speak to business groups and masterminds about how to turn brands into sales tools.

As you can imagine, being an agency owner for as long as I have, my nightlife is pretty wild. I live in a suburb of Toronto with my high school sweetheart, Jacqueline, my four kids and my dog, Rhett. Crazy stuff, right?

But in truth, my work has led to strange experiences. A few of my offbeat adventures include having a Boeing 737 for the day, being berated by a Billionaire, working with NBA players, and having a television commercial campaign blow up in the national press...those types of things.

I kicked off my entrepreneurial journey at 23 with no money and no clue.? 17 years later, my agency has

- Delivered 2,000+ projects
- Helped 300+ clients in 29 industries
- Worked in 6 countries
- Won 32 awards :)

TLDR: If you have a B2B company, I can help you take the guesswork out of your marketing, create a damn good reason for prospects to buy, and make you look good so you can sell more, faster and easier.

Pacific Private Money Group

- I've GOT A private mortgage banking business with access to capital markets
- That GIVES people peace of mind through ready access to funding options and/or secured investment options
- That GETS our borrowers get fast funding for the real estate they seek, and our investors receive secured, above-market yields.
- I want HELP I'm seeking referrals to people, companies or organizations that support capital raising or targeting high net worth investors.

BIOGRAPHY

I've spent my entire 40-year career in real estate. In 1982 I went to work in the family real estate development business that my father founded. The firm did not survive the downturn during the Great Recession, and in 2007 I found myself out of work (and out of money!). In 2008, at the age of 48, I started a "hard money loan brokerage" business from my home, and by the end of 2022 the Pacific Private Money group of companies employed 50+ people and was originating $600 million in "alternative real estate loans" annually. In addition to lending, the firm has four unique mortgage-backed debt funds, which pay it's members monthly distributions from 6% to 10% in annual returns.

I'm a person who loves to network, communicate and collaborate. People tell me that I come across as authentic and transparent, which has certainly helped me to raise capital for our various endeavors. My team and I have been successful in promoting the business through radio shows, radio ad spots, books, live seminars and webinars.

I am married to Lisa and have two daughters, 21 & 27. We reside in Tiburon, California in the San Francisco Bay Area. I can be reached on my cell anytime at 415-850-5555 or by email at mark@pacificprivatemoney.com.

BIOGRAPHY

Armed with only $3,000, gut-wrenching fear, and absolutely no real estate experience... Mark bought his first few parcels of raw land in 2001.

Today Mark is the author of Dirt Rich, the ultimate guide to helping you build a passive income. and owner of Frontier Properties, a very reputable and successful land investing company, and has been buying and selling land full time since 2001. By focusing on working smart, not hard, he has completed over 6000 land deals with an average ROI of over 300% on cash flips, and over 1,000% on the deals he sells with financing terms.

Mark has begun a new Done For You program helping the Rich become Wealthy. His program has helped countless professionals create a passive income stream so they have can solve their money and time problems.

Prior to his land investing success, Mark had a high-stress, soulless corporate job, and felt trapped in a state of solo-economic dependency (i.e. his income stopped as soon as he stopped working).

Escaping solo-economic dependency changed Mark's life in so many positive ways that he decided to teach, coach, and mentor others to help them achieve their financial goals.

Even though Mark invests a lot of his time helping others, he stays actively involved in running his land investing business and is dedicated to teaching the most current and relevant "real world" land investing methods to his students.

- I've GOT Unique life experiences as a fighter pilot, trauma survivor, and adventure athlete
- That GIVES Actionable lessons in keynote speeches to overcome fear, build trusted teams, and be agile
- That GETS Freedom, courage, empowerment, teamwork, and agility to thrive through adversity and uncertainty
- I want HELP Marketing, social media, and scaling messages into online

BIOGRAPHY

I lost my dad when I was 12 and survived sexual abuse and assault. These traumatic events could have crushed me but instead propelled me on a path of purpose to serve others and make a difference with my life. I was blessed to serve 26 years in the Air Force and was the 1st woman in U.S. history to fly a fighter jet in combat and command a fighter squadron in combat. I deployed six times to the Middle East and Afghanistan, flying 325 combat hours in the A-10 attack plane, earning the Bronze Star and six air medals.

After the military, I served as a Professor of National Security Studies at the George C. Marshall Center in Germany. Unwilling to walk by a problem, I decided to stop yelling at the TV and came home to AZ to run for Congress. It took me 3 years to get elected, then I served 4 years in the House and 2 years in the U.S. Senate.

Martha 3.0 is taking the unique lessons I learned especially in combat and inspiring and activating others through keynote speaking to equip people and businesses to overcome fear, build trusted teams, and train for an agility mindset.

I love adventure! I have run marathons and 2 Ironman triathlons including Hawaii and climbed Kilimanjaro and some other mountains. I am currently trekking the 800 mile Arizona trail, paragliding, and flying in my free time. I have a rescue golden retriever named Boomer.

Matt Eller

Eller Enterprises, Inc.

- I've GOT A company that develops and build projects.
- That GIVES A place to work creatively and efficiently.
- That GETS A a project on time and on budget
- I want HELP Finding An integrator.

BIOGRAPHY

It's fun helping people look at a project and take it from 2D into 3D. Make walls into hurdles. People rarely have a spending problem, but rather an income problem. ADD... . It's not a disorder but instead it's a gift. Those that have ADG and are trained well become WAR horses. Unstoppable. It's who you want by your side in battle. I look for battles that I want to run to, not just to participate in. I love the fun. If there is no fun factor.... I'm out. When I'm in, I'm all in.

Matt Finkelstein

BIOGRAPHY

Matt Finkelstein is creator of the Optimum Building, Optimum Human Performance & Co-working, in Albuquerque NM.

Matt has become successful by helping people become better versions of themselves. He's the kind of tireless entrepreneur who challenges traditional thinking-and will inspire you to reshape your ambitions into something bigger, grander, and more meaningful. Simply, he helps people get 'unstuck' so they can move forward.

Drawing on his experience as CEO of Southwest Women's Oncology, Matt added a monumental step forward in human potential with his unveiling of the Optimum Building. The facility offers an experience-forward, fully amenitized work and human performance space designed to provide every tool to unlock potential. "Optimum is the first of its kind," says Matt, who employed a 'build it and they will come' philosophy in creating the state-of-the-art facility. "Our technology is focused on synchronizing to you-whatever you need to thrive is exactly what you get:'

The space has curated the best modern solutions for Health, Biohacking, Mindset, Fitness, Recovery and Rejuvenation-and also hosts Southwest Women's Oncology and Health. Walking through these doors is like entering a launchpad to achieve your personal goals. With stunning views of the Sandia mountains and Albuquerque, the Optimum building also brings the very best in technology and human potential services that make a meaningful difference in each person's success. Those amenities include cryotherapy chambers, sensory deprivation tanks, a Himalayan salt therapy room, and exercise equipment that tracks your workouts through a custom fitness bracelet, and calculates resistance based on progress.

Each of us strives to be at our optimum, and that prosperity only comes from productivity and performance the kind of environment that like-minded individuals have created at Optimum. "I wanted to create a place with support and tools so people could accomplish the things they really want," says Matt. "It's like our guests are artists, and we provide the canvas and brushes so they can create the perfect picture for life:'

Max Hansen

BIOGRAPHY

I have dedicated the last two decades of my life to providing the best hiring practices in leadership search and consulting. I was fortunate that my first job after graduating with a Bachelor's Degree from Northern Arizona in Business Administration was with the Fortune 50 Recruiting firm Allegis Group / Aerotek. This experience provided me a solid foundation for understanding both best in class business systems and selection processes.

In January of 2002, I founded my first recruiting/search firm, Job Brokers, Inc. Together with my team, we went on to hire more than 30,000 people across a wide swath of industries including engineering, manufacturing, education, healthcare, distribution, mining, finance, technology, and apparel. We proudly grew our annual revenues in excess of $35 million and expanded into other divisions and brands. The most notable being Y Scouts in 2012.

Why Y Scouts? Somewhere along the line in 2010-2011, the traditional contingent hiring model wasn't allowing me to help organizations solve the deeper rooted issues they were facing around their hiring practices. My desire to help organizations with the root of their challenges, along with the lack of meaning in my work, pushed me to create the first ever purpose-based leadership search firm. In 2015, I sold all my interests in three traditional recruiting companies to more aggressively pursue building Y Scouts and Purposed-based Leadership Search.

I am incredibly proud to be part of the Purpose Movement and a founding member of the Y Scouts team. I love the personal development I benefit from while working with Conscious Leaders. I enjoy helping them and their organizations continuously improve and succeed as high performing cultures and teams. The root of our work goes deeper – towards individual purpose, building true relationships, relentless learning, love, and their ultimate intersection.

The only sustainable business strategy is hiring the right leaders and team members. I find it fascinating that as our world gets more complex with technological breakthroughs, the demand for great leaders and people is at an all-time high.

A little more about Max:

- Husband to Bryna and loving Father/Stepfather to 5 amazing kids.
- Interested in anything that involves going fast with the possibility of catching air
- An avid golfer and played or coached football, basketball, baseball, and soccer.
- Seahawks Fan – Go Hawks!
- Capable of spinning pretty much anything on my finger
- Snowboarder since the first air Burton Air Snowboard
- 2015 Spirit of the Gumball winner
- Enjoys traveling across states as well as across countries
- Would take anyone on in backgammon

- That GIVES collaborative, purpose-driven founders the necessary strategies and relationships to expand their businesses and impact millions more lives.
- That GETS them, their teams and stakeholders the financial rewards consistent with that level of positive impact.
- I want HELP connecting with founders who would benefit from admission to my Consumer Health Summit founder community, or my ongoing advisory support with customer-centric business growth.

BIOGRAPHY

From his early 20's, Michael knew that helping companies who help people would be the focus of his professional life. He has been leading the Consumer Health Summit community since 1994 as a private, invitation-only group for founders who lead consumer-facing businesses in wellness and fitness: apps, wearables, food/beverage, supplements, health tech, home diagnostic testing, and the like. He has been leading the community and curating its participants and faculty ever since.

Also, for nearly 30 years, Michael has been a leading advisor on marketing, positioning and sustained business growth to a range of consumer wellness/fitness businesses, advising companies such as Bulletproof, MindValley, Athletic Greens, Hint Water, BrainTap, as well as many of the leading personalities who serve large online customer communities.

The psychology that enables resonant communication and committed customer engagement has been his passion and the lens through which he sees business growth.

As a speaker, he shares how the founder's origin story, clear messaging, customer care and work culture combine to take companies and personal brands from merely good to the admired best at what they do.

Walsh Business Growth INstitute

- I've GOT I have a business consulting firm that provides both strategic development and implementation support for owners of established and growing service-based companies.
- That GIVES I provide business owners, partners and senior leaders with the tools, strategies and implementation support to overcome the underlying obstacles that impede or thwart business growth through different stages of a company's development. I also support potential leaders to grow into leadership, or partnership positions, and help to train existing and budding managers.
- That GETS As a result of our combined efforts, client revenues and profits grow, on a sustainable basis (quite often several-fold over their start), and they achieve their goals and commitments in the business and the rest of life, for themselves, their staff members, their families, and for the communities they serve. The impact is that life goes smoother, relationships get stronger, and things get more exciting.
- I want HELP To find someone in marketing to help me access speaking gigs in advance of, and beyond the release of my next book (projected for late Spring 2024). Also, I would love to find a COO for a foundation to develop personal leadership skills and business skills in youth and young adults.

BIOGRAPHY

Since 1995, I have run this boutique business consulting firm/practice, working with business owners of established companies ($1 million to $20 million in revenues) in Canada, the USA, and Europe, to grow their organizations in support of their personal goals and commitments in life. My initial areas of focus moved from sales, people and structures for established service-based companies. In particular, I have had partnerships as a focus.

Typically, I have spent as much -- or more -- time on the underlying dynamics (read human behaviour and other underlying structures) that provide either unique opportunities to owners and their senior leaders or - more often -- identifying and overcoming the hidden underlying obstacles that impede or thwart growth, profits and sustainability, at different stages of a company's growth and evolution.

Most recently, I have also been supporting senior leaders in their own personal and professional growth, as their organizations scale.

In May of this year, I decided I needed an "overhaul", both personally and professionally. Personally, I have taken on a health and fitness protocol (still working on the habits) that have generated weight loss (50 lbs gone) and strength and stamina gains (slow progress here). Professionally, I have doubled my efforts at writing my next book, and I have been looking for ways to increase my connections with others in the business community, in support of my goals for increased reach and impact.

Part of what's next for me is to develop thought leadership in providing youth, and young adults with the skills, tools, and perspectives to growth both leadership and business skills, in Canada, the USA and in Europe.

The Center for Respect

- I've GOT game changing keynotes and trainings for helping schools and organizations build mutually amazing consensual relationships - from the workplace to the bedroom.
- That GIVES essential skill sets for transforming their daily decision making when interacting with others.
- That GETS a culture where everyone feels seen and valued and thus wants to perform at their highest level.
- I want HELP being introduced to leaders who are seeking mutually amazing relationships for themselves, their kids' schools, and/or their companies.

BIOGRAPHY

High energy author and Hall-of-Fame speaker who loves helping individuals and couples thrive building mutually amazing relationships. For the past 3 decades, Mike has been a role model for living the life of how to build mutually amazing relationships and thus live your greatest life.

After Mike's sister was sexually assaulted in 1989 (when he was 19), he went on a mission to transform how the world treats sexual intimacy, consent, and joy. Mike found his voice by speaking on stages around the world. While he was originally brought in to schools, universities, and military installations across the globe to reduce harm and sexual violence through a highly interactive and thought-provoking keynote speech, his clients were walking away with a positive how-to model for living incredible relationships based on respect, trust, connection, communication, and knowledge. For 3 decades, Mike has been transforming society's standard of excellence in relationships.

You may have seen Mike on NBC Dateline as a featured subject matter expert or being quoted in international news publications such as Forbes and The Wall Street Journal. He is continuously being sought out for his proven track record of helping people shift their paradigm on respect in sexual intimacy.

Whether you'd like Mike to join one of Mike's life-changing retreats or want him to speak at your kids' schools, let him know. He is always happy to be a resource. Or if you'd love to tap his brain to hire him as a Speaking Coach, especially for how to be your truest self when speaking (instead of following a "Speaker Formula" that is more focused on you "performing"). Roof Maxx

- I've GOT a sustainable roofing treatment that can double the life of existing roofs.
- That GIVES property an option versus a complete roof replacement.
- That GETS them a savings of about 75% over roof replacement.
- I want HELP scaling my business to increase our product's impact on wasted physical and financial resources.

BIOGRAPHY

Mike, a veteran in the roofing industry with over 30 years of experience, co-founded Roofers Success International, the top contractor university in the nation. He is also known for his widely read monthly column, "A View from the Top," in Roofing Contractor Magazine, where he advocated for positive changes in the industry. Furthermore, Mike frequently speaks at contractor conferences across the country.

Together with his brother Todd, Mike spent over 25 years building one of the nation's leading roofing companies. In 2012, they made the decision to sell their business in order to shift their focus towards roofing sustainability. This led to the creation of Roof Maxx, the world's first sustainable roofing treatment designed to prolong the lifespan of asphalt roofs. Roof Maxx Technologies now distributes Roof Maxx to a network of more than 300 dealers throughout the United States. These dealers are typically existing contractors or business owners who share the Feazel brothers' commitment to sustainable roofing solutions.

Dream Exit

- I've GOT We're committed to helping entrepreneurs prepare to achieve The Dream Exit they deserve.
- That GIVES We help successful entrepreneurs get ready to achieve The Dream Exit they deserve. 4 out of 5 business owners who have sold their business wish they'd spent more time preparing for it. In other words, 80+% of entrepreneurs experience some sense of regret about the choice they made to sell / transition from the most valuable personal and professional event of their lives. That's CRAZY! And it doesn't have to be that way.
- That GETS We help entrepreneurs and business owners in 3 ways. First, we help them create and build a customized and personalized Dream Exit Playbook that gets them ready to 1) maximize the long term value of their business AND 2) get them ready to maximize their value and purpose in life - with or without their business. Our Playbook advisory process results in a 10x - 100x value ROI for every client. And that's just the money part. The more important part is that the Playbook process gets entrepreneurs prepared and ready to recognize and appreciate the extreme value they can and will have in their post exit life. That's priceless. Second, we provide Dream Exit Quarters - quarterly assistance and advice to help entrepreneurs be accountable to the implementation of their Playbook plan, overcome hurdles, gain confidence and stay on track. Third, we provide Dream Exit Liaison assistance to help entrepreneurs through the due diligence and sale process. We believe that every successful entrepreneur deserves and needs an advocate who's sole focus is on them and on making sure that they achieve the Dream Exit they want and deserve. Going through the due diligence process is stressful, lonely, and unpredictable. We help our clients get prepared for what to expect, serve as a 'safe' advisor - the one person they can talk to and strategize with safely and without risk, and - most importantly - guide them through the tricky and challenging process to getting the Dream Exit they deserve.
- I want HELP I want to connect with entrepreneurs who want to be as prepared as possible to get the Dream Exit they deserve because I know that we can help them get ready, get educated, and get prepared to know what they want while helping them level their playing field against the sophisticated buyers they will likely be up against. I also want to connect with people who have audiences of entrepreneurs who are curious, committed, coachable, and who recognize that Dream Exits don't just happen but are the result of early, intentional and professional preparation.

BIOGRAPHY

Hello GN. I'm very excited to be here and to learn from everyone I can. My short story is that I loved trucks from the time I was 4. In college, I got a job driving a garbage truck and that led me to a waste management career. In 1992, I started my first waste (environmental services) company and - wow that was a journey. I'll spare you all the details (please ask if you're interested) but we grew, expanded, maximized and sold this business in 2015 for a lot (at least I thought it was a lot).

A couple of years later, I started another similar company with a private equity partner and we, luckily and without much - or any - exceptionalism, built a platform company that benefited from the wave of PE funded 'we have to be in the waste [sustainability] business' FOMO that gave us the opportunity to sell that business in 2021 for a really great price that made everyone (at least on the investor side - and maybe not so much on the team member side) very happy.

I am of have been involved with Strategic Coach, Vistage, YPO, Abundance 360, BrEpic Network, ACG, and Toastmasters. I've been married for 33 years to my wife, Jamy, and we have 2 adult children - Morgan is 27 and Rachel is 24.

There's a lot more to tell but we can talk about that in person if you're interested. Thanks, Mike

He is a loving husband to his amazing wife and proud father to three world shaping children. In his free time, Michael enjoys immersing himself in nature, fishing, and spending quality time with his family.

A firm believer in the importance of individual sovereignty, Michael's life goal is to awaken the general populace to the idea that they must become sovereign individuals. He firmly believes that critical thinking and self-sufficiency are essential for people to claim their birthright as their sovereign selves. To this end Michael has begun to write a series of ten books to help accomplish this mission.

Michael is also a member of the Financial Policy Council, where he is a valued member committed to promoting critical thinking and empowering people to become more self-reliant. With his remarkable entrepreneurial track record, Michael has cultivated a keen eye for identifying and nurturing promising startups. He enjoys connecting entrepreneurs with amazing ideas to support from capital partners, a role he finds both fulfilling and rewarding.

Overall, Michael's diverse experiences, unwavering commitment to family and community, and passion for individual sovereignty make him a powerful connector, as well as a respected leader in the business and investment community.

- That GETS them more growth, more money, more profits, and most importantly, more sleep.
- I want HELP connecting to like-minded geniuses who desire to co-create something massively impactful and would benefit from the addition of CFO expertise.

BIOGRAPHY

Patty is the founder of TurboExecs, where she and her team work with $2M+ professional services and non-profit organizations that struggle to get the timely financial reports they need to function, often because one person holds this information hostage or lacks the skills required to do the work.

Through outsourced accounting and fractional CFO services, along with the power of an entire accounting department, we reveal the story behind the numbers so leaders confidently can make data-driven decisions that allow them to leap forward, trusting they have the team and finances in place for manageable, profitable growth. As a result, our clients typically increase the bottom line by at least 15% and feel in control of their finances and results.

Patty got her first taste of entrepreneurial life in the office of her father's well drilling business in her teens. With her first accounting class in high school, she'd found the professional outlet for her problem-solving skills.

She is the co-author of The Small Business Owner's Manual: Build Your Dream Business, and she has taught accounting & financial management to entrepreneurs at Penn State Harrisburg.

Patty and her husband Mark have been married 37 years and have 2 grown sons. In her free time, Patty enjoys playing competitive tennis, cooking and traveling with her husband.

How To Manage A Small Law Firm

- I've GOT At How to Manage a Small Law Firm we manage nearly 500 solo & small law firms ranging from under 250K to $60M In gross revenues to deliver exponential growth.
- That GIVES Helps Lawyers manage their business properly which creates exponential growth.
- That GETS More clients, more money, freedom, personal growth and a life beyond their wildest dreams.
- I want HELP Build connections and partnerships that can help us help more lawyers and expand the reach of our programs and offerings

BIOGRAPHY

In 2016 How To MANAGE a Small Law Firm, the national outside managing partner services company that RJon Robins founded, was named by Inc. Magazine, for the second year in a row, as one of the 5,000 fastest growing privately held companies in the Country. Fastest in the category of helping solo and small law firm owners kick-butt and build better law firms (affording them more financial resources and freedom of time to help more clients and have a better life).

But...in 2008 RJon Robins lost pretty much everything. Which is pretty ironic because for 8 years previous, he'd made quite a great name for himself as one of the most trusted resources in the Country. Thousands of lawyers turned to him for help whenever they needed clarity about how to grow and manage their solo and small law firms. RJon first achieved notoriety after struggling with his own solo law firm which he (rather naively) went into it without a written business plan, without a written marketing plan, without written processes or procedures, without job descriptions for staff (who ate him out of house & home), and no financial controls to see what was happening before it was too late.

The notoriety didn't come from the failure of RJon's law firm serving his financial, personal and/or professional hopes, dreams or aspirations. That alone would have hardly distinguished him from about half a million other struggling solo lawyers from all walks of life, who tilt at windmills all day long (without anyone to be managing partner), in every area of practice, all around the Country.

What brought the notoriety was a stroke of luck. RJon was in the right place at the right time and happened to say just the right thing, to just the right person; leading to RJon learning how to turn his struggling law firm around. On the strength of that, he was recruited by The Florida Bar's legendary J.R. Phelps of the world-famous Law Office Management Assistance Service (LOMAS). RJon invested the next four years of his career learning from the best (and from some of the worst) about what it takes to start, grow, save, salvage, and run a perfectly good law firm into the ground. He also learned quite a bit about how to do things the right way and used these skills, experiences, and profound insights to help thousands of lawyers build better law firms and lives. He helped some of them start and build highly-successful law firms that run like real businesses and helped others save, salvage and avert total disaster when the long term effects of running their law firm like a noble hobby finally hit home with a big, loud "splotch". As the only lawyer in the history of The Florida Bar to serve as a full time Small Law Practice Management Advisor, RJon spent the years between 1999-2001 working with what The Florida Bar estimates was more than 9,000 solo and small law firm owners.

Nowadays when he's not conducting CLE workshops around the Country on behalf of some of the biggest names in the legal industry (LexisNexis, Microsoft, Law Pay, Ruby Receptionists and dozens and dozens and dozens of bar associations, but who's counting), RJon is attending to his duties as CEO of the leading provider of outside managing partner, outside COO, and outside CFO services exclusively for solo and small law firms nationwide...or he's out practicing what he preaches about letting your business give you a life instead of the other way around.

Oh yeah, and RJon is a Member of The Florida Bar, where he's still authorized to appear before the Southern District Federal Court, as well as a member of The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. RJon earned an interdisciplinary degree from The American University in Washington, DC (Communications, Law, Economics & Government), he graduated from Nova Southeastern College of Law and he doesn't eat ice cream every day but when he does, he prefers butter pecan.

BIOGRAPHY

As a kid I always wanted to be an NBA basketball player. I was a sports freak and loved to compete. I completed my in class work before anyone else and I rarely made any mistakes. When I was 8 years old my Dad died of a heart attack and we had zero money as he had no life insurance. Without any money or skill my Mom who I lost 20 years ago had to do what it took to make ends meet and she became a married man's mistress. (I think this is behind my love of education and training because of the options one has when they have skills and thinking behind finding solutions to problems and challenges. I excelled in high school as an athlete and sold homes in the summer while holding down 2 other jobs, landscaping and golf shop duties at the the Wigwam while practicing basketball in the summer leagues. I received a scholarship to University of AZ from the Evan's Foundation and it helped me pay for some of college where I graduated with a degree in Finance and Real Estate. I ended up in the chemical sales business with Johnson Wax and then National Sanitary Supply..I hated this part of my life. In 1995, I got committed myself to career in real estate and became a 10 million dollar producer in my second year (80 homes). I became president and partner of this small boutique office in Ahwatukee called Desert Foothills Real Estate. My partner and I were awarded the Keller Williams franchise in Phoenix and we grew that to 180 agents in 18 months and my partner and I broke up and went on to open 5 KW offices and the rights to develop KW in the state of Utah. I am the CEO of Agnew Real Estate with close the 1900 real estate agents under my flag and enjoy my family with my wife Patti and three kids, Katy, Scotty, and Michael. All grown and independent. I have 2 wonderful grandkids, Michael and Melody and An amazing son-in law Frank and the lovely Maddie as my daughter-in law . I love to train, and serve my agents, my family, and my community (I am Past President and 22 year member of the Tempe Diablo Charities foundation where I have found lifelong friends and fulfillment. I value connection now more than ever and it's always fulfilling to grow and contribute in many ways. With all that stuff, I still feel isolated and alone at times and very misunderstood. I have pretty much been in life coaching, or business coaching my whole life and owe my survival to those who were gracious enough to support me. especially my wife who without her I would have spun out of control as I wasn't very grounded and wasn't actually committed to being a present father and husband during the first 20 years of our marriage. So, I am extremely grateful for surviving and thriving in the world and am now seeking a way to live out the next stage of my life with elegance, ease, grace, and impact. Thank you

BIOGRAPHY

Scott Danner is a champion of high performers — and those who strive to be the best version of themselves. A CEO, entrepreneur, coach, consultant, and LIFE Optimization specialist, he is the author of the Amazon best-selling book Freedom Street. He hosts the podcast The High Performance LIFE for high performers in any profession.

Although a high income is often the by-product of success, Scott encourages high performers to focus first on LIFE (an acronym representing love, impact, faith, and energy), and the money will follow. He believes we all can make a greater impact when these four critical components of our lives are our focus, and when they are in symmetry.

Fascinated with the way high performers overcome obstacles, Scott dives deep with his podcast guests to explore how they have achieved success and where they have struggled. He leads highly personal, unscripted, and candid conversations with ultra-performers to explore their unique mindset.

In 2016, Scott launched Freedom Street Partners in Chesapeake, Va., that has grown to more than 90 professionals in seven states. Freedom Street Partners is a network of Financial Advisors and specializes in M&A within the industry.

Scott is the cofounder of the Chesapeake Virginia Wine Festival, which has donated more than $2.5 million to local charities. He and his wife, Adrienne, a kindergarten teacher, have two teenaged sons.

27 years in Information Technology and Sales Leadership. Dad of 2 teenage girls (Libby 17 and Amelia 15). 18 years with my wife/soul mate (Amy). I play ice hockey 3 days/week and golf as much as possible. Die-hard Philly Sports Fan. Real Estate Investor. Sober since 2011.

I've partnered with two grizzled manufacturing experts and launched my 1st true entrepreneurial endeavor with a start-up called 3DAgility.com.

Our mission is to empower product designers, engineers, and sales teams with cutting-edge, AI and additive solutions. These technologies not only fast-track the realization of their ideas but also reclaim their most valuable asset—time, particularly by streamlining design processes and reducing development cycles.

Imagine a platform where billions of hardware connectors are analyzed to recommend the perfect match for your project. Our AI-driven system does exactly that, ensuring efficiency and precision in every recommendation. Coupled with an advanced Chat Bot, our platform communicates in natural language, making complex decisions straightforward and user-friendly.

Sustainability and continuous innovation are at the core of what we do. We are committed to streamlining the design process, optimizing performance, and minimizing waste. This approach results in sustainable and efficient production, reducing environmental impact without compromising quality.

At 3DAgility.com, we are redefining product design. Here, innovation meets responsibility, and every step forward is a leap towards a more efficient and sustainable future.

- That GETS Better life styles/simpler home solutions, clean homes so they can think Crystal Clear, better pay for employees of network providers, and more
- I want HELP I could use help with finding the right way to get business partners, and/or managers engaged and in place so I can focus on bigger and larger ideas that help more people. Help with focusing and figuring where to spend energy and what to drop... Help with finances.. I also could use help with getting investors when the time is right.

BIOGRAPHY

My name is Seth Langston. I am a 30 year old entrepreneur from North Carolina. I was born in NC, moved to Wisconsin at a young age and grew up there, Moved back to NC 8 years ago where I started an exterior cleaning company with my 4 best friends, we are still best friends but its been a ride. I barely graduated high school, with the luck and help of some amazing teachers to thank for that.. I did not attend college but am making up for the lost relationships and have invested more in myself than most do in college. I have been an entrepreneur at heart since age 8 and started different business's my entire childhood selling golfballs we would find, lawn care companies, cleaning peoples cars, etc. I have been a pastry chef in my past years before I got serious about business.

I am a faithful, driven, giving person that sees the best in all people around me. When I do get a Billion dollars someday over half of it will go back to my family, best friends, and anyone I did wrong over the years! I do not wish any ill will on even my worse enemy's. I hope to help all people around me understand their full potential wether they are homeless or already "successful".

I am sort of a YES man and always down for an adventure and clear to calendar when I can and take off and chase new experiences. I do enjoy a list of hobbies that are golf, island hoping, surfing, deep sea fishing, spearfishing, scuba diving, long walks with the dog, cooking for others.. Plenty more but those are the ones I'm regularly seeking to maintain.

I have a very innovative mind set and can always predict the future or see things far in advance when I am in my best state of mind. I am a small business owner of a few services companies currently but have plans to be a in the Technology and Data Research industry someday to help simplify every day peoples lives so they can focus on there lives and families.

I have a lot to learn in life and business still, HAVE TONS OF FLAWS AND THINGS TO FIX.. BUT I am passionate about learning and growing quickly as possible so we can help the world re gain focus and find better solutions to working together. Look forward to helping people the rest of my life whether the are trying to get out of a bad situation in life or grow to new levels they don't see existing.

The goal is to re work peoples minds from focusing on ME and rework it to focus on WE.

- I want HELP We would like help with more effective means and methods of marketing our expertise and services so that we can improve the lives and peace of mind of clients across the metropolitan Phoenix area.

BIOGRAPHY

My background and experience in business ownership and leadership have shaped my beliefs and practices. When I started Renco, my goal was to create a business that could support my family and provide high-quality construction services. Over time, I have learned that success is not just about me or my family, but about creating an organization that can provide success and opportunity for many. We believe in education, training, and personality assessment to facilitate job satisfaction. We have learned many hard lessons over the years on how our customers interpret our interactions with them, what are the optimal ways to please our customers, and how we can best serve our customers. We have learned how to adapt, how to serve, and how to grow.

At Renco Roofing, we have three core values: dedication, teamwork, and integrity. These values are the foundation of our company culture, and we strive to live them every day. Additionally, we have three uniques that set us apart from our competitors: we fix the real problem, our quality workmanship and products, and our communication. Putting these three core values and three unique processes into play every day allows us to serve our customers and our employees in the most ethical way possible.

Sharon Stills

RED MEDical -although this is going to change

- I've GOT over 2 decades of experience as a Naturopathic Physician helping people heal from acute and chronic illness. - I want HELP setting up my new clinic properly with the right staff and the right systems so I can still live the lifestyle I am used to and not get burnt out again.

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Sharon Stills is a Naturopathic Medical Doctor providing comprehensive health care, therapeutic and diagnostic services to patients worldwide. She combines her conventional medical training, data-driven science, cutting-edge diagnostic tools and a deep knowledge of natural healing to effectively identify and treat health concerns ranging from allergies to end stage cancer, and everything in between.

Dr. Stills is a 2001 graduate of SCNM (The Southwest College of Naturopathic Medicine) in Tempe, Arizona, one of the nation's foremost accredited medical schools. She specializes in European Biological Medicine –having trained extensively with Dr. Thomas Rau formerly of the Paracelsus Clinic in Switzerland. She was chosen to lecture alongside him as part of the Paracelsus Academy. In addition, she is also extremely well-versed in pro-aging therapies and Bio-identical Hormone Replacement. She is well known for her successful involvement with patients dealing with a Cancer Diagnosis – both early and advanced stage – and has been featured in many Oncology Summits based on her experience and knowledge of the subject. Dr. Stills travels the world seeking out the best of Natural Medicine options and bringing them back to the US.

Drawing from a wide variety of traditions and healing foundations, including Naturopathic, Bio-Regulatory, Functional, Homeopathic, TCM and Ayurveda, she has been successful in providing answers and healing pathways to her patients when others have failed.

Some of Dr. Stills' favorite healing modalities include the use of isopathic and complex homeopathic remedies, bioidentical hormone replacement, live cell therapeutics, targeted use of vitamins and herbs along with the therapeutic use of color, breathwork and sound frequencies.

Dr. Stills has a passion for her profession and that drives her to embrace opportunities to lead, participate and contribute her vast knowledge and expertise as:

A Physician Expert for Women's Health Network

The Host of the Science of Self-Healing Podcast

A Frequent Lecturer Around the Globe as an Educator of Other Physicians

A Highly Sought After Guest on Podcasts and Summits

One of the Leading Experts on CRT (Computerized Regulation Thermography)

Dr. Stills believes in the healing power of ritual and retreats and many of her own personal leaps forward have occurred while traveling and stepping time outside of her comfort zone. She is dedicated to helping others do the same. To realize this passion, she is in the process of creating Destination RED, a series of unique, life-changing retreats for small groups to be held in healing and rejuvenating locations around the world.

Having overcome serious health issues of her own, Dr. Stills practices what she preaches! She loves to cook and eats a healthy Paleo diet. She swallows more vitamins daily than she will ever ask you to swallow and a good night's sleep is a priority. She is continuously humbled and inspired by every patient she has the opportunity to guide towards Reinventing Their Health....Naturally!

When not with patients, or working on her upcoming book, she can often be found peacefully meditating, or yelling excitedly while watching a NY Jets game. She loves to buy shoes, yet is frequently found barefoot. Baking is a favorite, though her paleo cookie dough rarely makes it into the oven. She's passionate about physical movement in many forms including yoga, running a mountain trail or dancing all her worries away at a live music venue. She is a hot-tub junkie and an avid skier with a serious case of wanderlust. Her heavily stamped passport and time with her family (highlighted by being a bubbe to her two adorable granddaughters) is a powerful indicator of her own, well-lived RED-Hot life – one that she is grateful for daily.

- I want HELP I want help with resources, ideas, and sharing mistakes made in managing a president of your business.

BIOGRAPHY

I have these gifts for which I'm eternally grateful (and did not earn): I'm an American with mid-western parents who continue to love each other, raising us to think for and believe in ourselves; I had nothing significant to fear growing up other than Sister Agatha; my father allowed me to fail and had the foresight to give me the space to lift myself up. I'm a father of three, ended a difficult marriage of 22 years, and am now re-married to the love of my life. Most of my career was in carpet manufacturing. In that industry, I was the President of a publicly-traded company called Fabrica. I was fired in my mid-30's, retired, then lost everything during the '08 recession. With no job and a family of five, I took $42k of my last $60k and started my existing business in 2011. Looking back, my failures have shaped who I am today.

Tyler Chou

Tyler Chou Law for Creators

- I've GOT Tyler Chou Law for Creators that functions as a law firm, agency and fractional COO company for big creators on YouTube, Instagram, TikTok and Facebook. I now have my dream life, filled with purpose as I support and protect those who are unprotected. I also function as a fractional general counsel for big agencies and start-ups (one who is on-track to be an unicorn).
- That GIVES High-level support and protection from an attorney who has been in Hollywood the past 15 years, working at companies at Disney, Skydance and BuzzFeed as well as Big Law Firms, Loeb & Loeb and Hogan Lovells...but not at a big law firm price.
- That GETS I often 2x or 4x the revenue of my creator clients' businesses helping them diversify their revenue streams and protect them against lawsuit by structuring deals and agreements to protect them.
- I want HELP I would like to support companies who are actively trying to make the world a better place with their businesses with a goal to help those who are typically under-represented. I need help finding new clients who want to increase their revenue and who are looking for an attorney who is a deal-closer and drive problem-solver who holds the space that two sides both have needs and wants. I always ask the other side, what does your client need? The deals I close and paper have both sides who are satisfied but slightly unhappy because those are the fair deals because both sides got what they wanted.

BIOGRAPHY

Who Am I? I Am The Creators' Attorney, Whose Life's Calling Is To Protect And Support all Creators. A year ago, in 2022, I started a YouTube channel called Tyler Chou The Creators' Attorney (formerly The Hollywood Attorney) and quickly grew to 30,000 subscribers in under a year. I am currently and absolutely living my dream life! Why? I founded my own law firm (Tyler Chou Law for Creators) where I work all day long with creators, helping them build out their businesses, using YouTube as their creativity incubator but also the marketing arm of their business. I am more than an attorney—I am my clients' part-time COO, which means I am also their confidante, coach and biggest cheerleader. <https://www.youtube.com/@TheCreatorsAttorney/featured>

Why? Why Did I Pivot And Walk Away From Hollywood? Because it never felt right. I have been an entertainment, transactional attorney in Hollywood for over 15 years, working at companies like Disney, Skydance and BuzzFeed, as well as large law firm where I was on the talent team of big names like Tom Hanks, Marisa Tomei and Robert Rodriguez and on the corporate team that represented Fox. After protecting studios and companies for 15 years, I did not feel like I was doing meaningful work...that changed anyone's life, directly. I was tired of protecting the big studios and production companies who took advantage of creatives. And, I wasn't directly representing creatives, the real reason why I went into entertainment law. So I walked away, even though it's scary and hard building my own law firm, each day I wake up excited and it finally....FEELS RIGHT. My work finally aligns with my values. I am protecting creators who have been winging it on their own. Those brave souls who create for the beauty of creation to entertain and educate, without the promise of fame or money—they create because they must.... Creators show us, courageously, that we do not have to be handcuffed to a soul-sucking 9 to 5 corporate job because someone, or society told us to as children. We can walk away from a job, quit and start a YouTube channel and share our story. And creators create based on their own stories, with their phone or camera without a studio, streamer or network to tell them whether or not their stories are worthy of being picked out of development hell and will be produced against great odds. Creators are taking back the power and they create without anyone telling them no. The Creator Economy is currently valued at $104 Billion and expected to rise to $200 Billion by 2026. Traditional media (i.e., Hollywood) needs to wake up and pay attention. Imagine in 10-20 years, where we have a generation of creators whose callings/work align with their values. People who create for the sake of creating and who are compensated for creating. A society where they do not self-numb with alcohol or on-line shopping because they hate their work and life because there is no meaning in the work, and they are not leaving behind a legacy or a story for the next generation. Imagine a world full of people who love their lives and the people around them. Full of joy and fulfillment. May you be a creator, and may we all be creators. Creators are the soul of humanity. Who must be protected at all costs. And I am honored to pick up the sword and shield to protect all creators.

- I want HELP in mastering the art of consistently engaging clients to joyfully invest $10,000+ monthly for unparalleled Meta/Facebook advertising, and in accelerating the growth of e-commerce ventures.

BIOGRAPHY

Facebook / Meta Ads ? | Climber ? | Creative ?...

Hey there! I'm Victor. I've been immersed in digital marketing for over a decade. I started in a high-growth startup and quickly ascended to a director of marketing operations role at a $13M+ e-commerce supplement company. And then, desiring to highly specialize after completing "So Good They Can't Ignore You" by Cal Newport, I pivoted to Meta / Facebook ads.

Why this shift? There's an unparalleled satisfaction in penning the perfect ad copy, fine-tuning the creative, and witnessing those metrics take off. And the results? In just the past 3 months, I've secured over $1.35 million for my clients.

But here's the heart of it: it's not merely about the numbers or accolades. It's the intricate dance of art and science in marketing that captivates me. My bookshelf is a testament to this passion, adorned with titles like "Breakthrough Advertising" and insights from maestros like Dan Kennedy and Ezra Firestone.

I owe a huge debt of gratitude to my mentors, peers, and every experience that has shaped my journey. Their guidance and trust have been invaluable. I hope to pay it forward in a big way as I continue to succeed and grow. And to you, reading this, thank you for taking a moment to connect with my story.

If you're on the lookout for a [growth marketer to help with Meta / Facebook ads], let's chat. Whether you're in the market for transformative marketing or just eager to exchange insights, I'm here and grateful for the opportunity.

BIOGRAPHY

I am a Mom to two incredible boys ages 14 and 17, an IFBB Fitness Pro, 3x Ms. Fitness Olympia and Arnold Classic Fitness International Champ. Owner of Pro Physiques, the largest Personal Training Gym in the state of Arizona, Owner of The Pros Online Training, coaching athletes all over the world, Owner of FEARless by Whitney Jones Fitness apparel line, Promoter/Owner of the NPC Whitney Jones Classic, NPC Arizona State Championships & the NPC/IFBB Triple O Dynasty show which are all fitness competitions here in Arizona. I am also a show host for Olympia TV and enjoy emceeing live sporting events.

I'm passionate about helping people identify and tap into their health and fitness goals and elevating them to succeed in all aspects of fitness from nutrition, exercise, discipline, lifestyle modifications as well as coaching athletes who compete across the world. So many people need help establishing a better quality of life for themselves, but having the proper tools and knowledge is the key element. I preach the importance of goal setting, having a strategic plan and maintaining the right mindset in order to succeed.

I've learned a lot through my 12 years as a professional athlete that has helped elevate me in the sport as well as in my business endeavors. I compete in the fitness division which means we are judged on our physiques as well as a two minute routine that is based on gymnastics, tumbling, dance choreography, strength moves and my style of routines include breakdancing and Bboy tricks. My athletic career can be summarized as the "Comeback Kid" having broken almost every bone in my body, undergoing 18 surgeries in my life and winning my first World Championship title 9 months after breaking my neck and competing in that very competition with a torn ACL/MCL from an injury suffered weeks out from the event. I feel there's always a way to accomplish something, but you have to be willing to navigate new paths when problems arise and think out of the box in order to achieve what you're going after. Through so many experiences in my competitions as well as business ventures I have gained a great appreciation for the things in life that we CAN do and I preach the mindset of "You don't HAVE TO, you GET TO" - My H2G2 motto. This simple flip in perception is empowering and can change the course of your daily habits.

In my spare time I love hanging with my boys and doing anything outdoors or active. Snowboarding is my absolute favorite thing to do even though, interestingly enough, I hate the cold. My secret to happiness is laughter and you can find me scrolling memes on the daily or hanging around funny and happy people who bring good energy and positive vibes.

Vitality Renewal Functional Medicine

- I've GOT 2 main companies: 1 is my brick & mortar precision/functional medicine practice in the Chicago Suburbs. The 2nd is a joint venture with Dr. Kristine Burke, to bring radiation-free breast imaging to women across the country.
- That GIVES My new company, Qlarity Breast Imaging, with Dr. Kristine Burke will allow women to have breast imaging without pain, trauma or radiation My functional medicine practice helps women in midlife feel like themselves again using healthy hormones, detoxification and self-care
- That GETS Qlarity Breast Imaging technology provides images 40X more precise than an MRI at a fraction of the cost. My functional medicine practice allows women to contribute to their families, companies, communities (in short the world) like their hearts desire.
- I want HELP 1. Growth & abundance mindset 2. Learning to NEVER sacrifice my health/ self care for my businesses 3. Letting go of betrayal from a colleague so that I only have room for positivity and growth 4. Meeting contacts to learn to expand into a franchise model once I've fully developed the prototype breast imaging center

BIOGRAPHY

I'm a physician entrepreneur. Originally a gynecologist, I now practice precision/functional medicine. My main focus is helping women in midlife maintain (or get back) their energy and focus so they can live their best lives and contribute the way their heart desires. I've started a new company, Qlarity Breast Imaging to bring radiation-free breast imaging to women across the country.
